SHEEPSUFFERING SEVERELY

LARGE NUMBER KILLED BY SMIT-TEN COYOTES.

Investigation Carried on to Ascertain Truth of Rumors.

Dr. E. R. Flack, county veterinarian, returned Friday from north of Flora, where he was summoned by a phone message from Earl Coffman, saying that his sheep which had been bitten by a coyote a few weeks ago were dying—30 already dead and 15 more showing symptoms of rabies, says the Enterprise News Record.

Mr. Flack received the message at 7 p. m. Wednesday and at 8 p. m. he was on his way to the Buford canyon where the Coffman sheep are ranging. He spent an entire day at the camp and when he left 65 sheep had died. Dr. Flack put the stock and Coffman's dogs under strict quarantine. He also brought out the heads of several sheep to ship to Dr. White of the state board at Portland.

J. B. Hammond of the North End collected the bounty on 13 coyote and four bob cat pelts at the county clerk's office this week. He was accompanied by D. N. Estes of Troy who had bought the skins, and who shipped them together with others he had purchased to New York city.

L. J. Sibly of West Crossman brought in eight coyote and one large lynx pelts Wednesday, all killed near his home in the new township.

Expert Coyote Trapper Hammersley says the coyotes are pretty well cleaned out in the Chenamus country and he will go over the breaks of the Snake river where the pests are reported more numerous.

which will be soon at the Steward, being presented here on March 1 with a specially selected company.

"The Man of the Hour" from all reports easily ranks as one of the most substantial hits of the past season. It is said to contain more generous laughs than many a farce and the love interest is absorbing. The play is said to be strong, convincing and uncommonly interesting and proves particularly effective as a dramatic vehicle, because it deals with a familiar subject in a most virile manner.

Jessie McAllister, one of the Starring lights in "Seven Days" a big farce production that is coming to the Steward March 6. The attraction is making a stupendous hit this year and is running at the Hellig in Portland this week.

"A Gentleman from Mississippi" It is always difficult to judge the life of a play, and many of the most talked of successes rarely survive a second season. When "A Gentleman from Mississippi" which came to the Steward March 3, was first produced three years ago its most ardent admirers could not have foretold its lasting popularity. The play is imbued with that lasting pathos which so strongly haunts the lives of men and women and is no less present in their joy than in their sorrow. Amid the tears of laughter one hears the old heart break and in this the play is true to life as it has been lived upon the earth since the world began. Magazines and newspapers have teemed with notices and articles about this wonderful play during the past two years. On this occasion Wm. A. Brady announces the special New York cast with the character comedian, Robert A. Fischer, in the part of Senator Langdon.

A Substantial Hit.

Playgoers will no doubt view with great favor "The Man of the Hour"
