HOLD CAUCUS AT ELGIN

NOMINATION OF CITY OFFICERS TO BE MADE TONIGHT.

Only a Few Names Being Suggested in Advance of the Caucus.

(Elgin Recorder.)

Monday evening the annual city caucus for the purpose of nominating candidates for various city offices will be held in the city hall. From all indications the caucus will be well attended and considerable interest is being developed in city politics. From all appearances the candidates who will be nominated at the regular caucus will be the only ones in the field, as men of all factions are showing a desire to go into the open caucus and place their nomination there. Candidates for mayor, three councilmen, recorder, treasurer and marshal will be nominated.

Only a few names have been prominently mentioned in connection with the nominations and it is quite probable that there will not be much of a contest at the caucus. Mayor Weatherspoon and D. Sommer are the most prominently mentioned for mayor. For councilmen the names of R. C. Mays, and F. E. Smith, both retiring members are prominently mentioned; also F. E. Graham and J. C. Shockley. Others will probably be placed before the caucus. For recorder, L. Denham and Jesse Crum are mentioned. Wm. St. Peters and C. Patten are avowed candidates for marshal. J. C. Christiansen, who was prominently mentioned, has withdrawn and will not become a candidate.

Many citizens are using every influence to eliminate the old factional fight and it is believed a compromise will be effected and that all citizens will unite in nominating fair minded and progressive men, who will look to the business welfare of the city instead of scrapping over petty questions agitated by the radicals.

BIG COMEDY TONIGHT.

Show Which Portland Raved Over Is Booked for La Grande.

For many days all Portland and the strangers within its gates have been howling with laughter over "Seven Days," the comedy by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood that has reached its second year. For six months Chicago bent double with merriment over this famous play. Now it's our turn. "Seven Days" is coming here tonight.

Messrs. Wagenhals & Kemper will present it in this city with an exceptionally gifted Broadway cast and a magnificent Astor theatre production. "Seven Days" couldn't be better acted than it will be here, nor could there be more elaborate stage settings. The players will be from the Astor theatre, where they contributed to the New York popularity of this tremendous comedy hit. Surely nobody will miss seeing this play, which without exception is pronounced the brightest, wittiest and best comedy in 20 years. Every dramatic writer in New York agrees in this opinion. The critics for the daily newspapers, the magazines and the correspondents for out of town journals are one in declaring "Seven Days" the greatest comedy of this generation. Here is a fair sample of the opinions. It is from the New York Globe.

"Seven Days," one of those cruelly funny farces—the kind that does not give you time to breathe between the laughs—kept the Astor in an uproar for three hours last night, and sent the audience home gasping, disheveled, limp, but still chuckling from sheer habit as it streamed out into Broadway. Every situation or incident that might possibly be expected to evoke a smile has been seized upon, tickled and humored until it produces a roar, and a dignified audience with broadcloth spangles and satin resigned itself to an evening of hilarity and wiped its eyes meekly between acts, grateful that it was not reduced to helpless hysteria."

If the foregoing isn't sufficiently convincing as to the funny bone tickling quality of "Seven Days" dig up your magazines and newspapers and see what they said. Then you'll know that you must go to "Seven Days" if you don't attend the theatre again this season.

SEVEN DAYS' LEADING LADY CHARACTER.

In This Talented Actress Seven Days Hinges Much of Its Attractive Humor. There are a Dozen Girls in the Play who Figure Conspicuously Throughout and Portland Papers are Profuse in Their Praise of the Play from Curtain to Curtain.

THEY ALL DEMAND IT.

La Grande, Like Every City and Town in the Union, Receives It.

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies today that relieve but do not cure. Here is evidence to prove that Doan's Kidney Pills cure, and the cure is lasting.

H. P. Swisher, 2467 Madison street, Baker City, Ore., says: "Kidney complaint in my case was caused by excessive horseback riding. The backache steadily became worse as time passed and there were other annoying symptoms of kidney complaint. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I began their use and they not only restored my kidneys to a normal condition, but rid me of the backache and pains. I shall always take pleasure in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills." (Statement given November 4, 1907.)

Lasting Results.

Mr. Swisher was interviewed on May 23, 1910, and he added to the above: "The cure made by Doan's Kidney Pills in my case has been permanent. I gladly confirm all I have previously said about this remedy."
