tion given by their entertainment to crowded houses.

William Sterling Battis is also a master of the art of stage craft. He has the most amazing array of costumes, which he dons and doffs at will and in shorter time than this is taking in the telling. His every entrance was a study and with the finish of the process of making up Battis seemed lost in the character that he sought to portray. He did not impersonate; he was.

Hanly, the Sadlers, the Apollo Concert company, Battis, the clever impersonator of Dickens' characters, Gabriel Maguire, the famous Irish traveler—all these and more, what a galaxy for a chautauqua they do make. July is still some time away, but interest is whetted and sharpened anew by the definite announcement of the main part of the 11-day program.

The Apollo Concert company and Bell Ringers is offered in response to a persistent call for a company of strictly high-class musicians and entertainers, capable of putting on a program of great variety and superior quality. A careful consideration of the personnel of the company, their long and successful concert experience, the instrumentation (which includes legitimate instruments only) in solos and splendid ensemble work, the vocal selections, etc., will convince the thoughtful buyer that the Apollo Concert company and Bell Ringers will attract large audiences and please them greatly. The press of many of the best lyceum cities of this country uniformly attest the splendid satisfac-

Dr. Gabriel Maguire, the great Irish orator and African traveler, is available for the Chautauqua season of 1911. Among great successes of the chautauqua platform for the past ten years Dr. Maguire stands out as one of the most eminent. His phenomenal success is probably due to two factors, one, his natural eloquence, and the other, the intense interest of the story he relates. He is one of the most notable of the African travelers and missionaries. He was the first white man to go up the Congo after Stanley came down.

REMOVES DANDRUFF

Puts Life Into Faded Hair and Stops Scalp Itch.

If your hair is dull and lifeless, is falling out and getting thin on top, then you need Parisian Sage, and the quicker you get it, the sooner you will thank the Newlin Drug Co. for selling you such a worthy dependable hair grower, dandruff cure and hair dressing.

Read what Mrs. M. A. May, of 107 East Elizabeth St., Detroit, Mich., writes on June 6, 1910:

"I have used many hair restorers but have received no apparent benefit until I tried Parisian Sage. My hair is soft and silky, and while before I commenced using the remedy my hair was falling fast, was dry and harsh, faded, and altogether unlovely now just within the past few weeks several have remarked how lovely my hair was. It is also fine just for a dressing, leaving the hair soft and fluffy. It removes dandruff, and cures itching of the scalp. I certainly take pleasure in recommending Parisian Sage."

Parisian Sage is sold by the Newlin Drug Co. and druggists everywhere. Get a 50 cent bottle today, use it for two weeks and if you are not satisfied that it will do all that it is advertised to do you can have your money back. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package. Feb. 18, Mch 1-11
