Spirited Campaign Will End Next Monday at Polls.

(Elgin Recorder.)

The annual city caucus held in the city hall Monday evening for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various city offices to be filled at the regular election next Monday was well attended and the most harmonious event of like nature held in Elgin during the past several years. Nearly 200 voters were in attendance, all being there with the purpose of nominating men in an open convention and there was no wrangling between factions and parties. While there were men present from all walks of life, representing many different policies and views, the caucus was one of harmony throughout. Mayor Weatherspoon called the house to order and on motion L. B. Tuttle was elected as chairman and J. B. Thorson secretary.
The objects of the convention were briefly stated by the chairman after which the method of choosing candidate was decided. It was voted to place as many names in nomination as the voters desired, but in making the final selection the voters were allowed to vote for only one man for any particular nomination, the two receiving the highest number of votes to be declared the candidates of the convention.

Mayor H. H. Weatherspoon and D.
Sommer received the highest number of votes in the contest for mayor and are candidates for that position. In the contest for councilmen only seven names were placed in nomination, F.
E. Graham losing out in the vote, as did C. R. Patten for the nomination of marshal.

The result of the caucus left the following in nomination for the offices mentioned below:

Mayor—H. H. Weatherspoon and D.
Sommer.

Councilmen—F. E. Smith, J. B.
Thorson, S. E. Harris, R. C. Mays, Nelson Hackett, J. C. Shockey.

Recorder—L. Denham and Jesse Crum.

Treasurer—R. L. Shoemaker.

Marshal—W. E. St. Peters and J. C.
Christiansen.

R. L. Shoemaker was unanimously nominated by acclamation for the office of treasurer.

For the past several years city conventions and elections have been characterized by bitter fights, resulting from the church and saloon controversies and differences, and each faction has always had its ticket ready for adoption before going into the caucus. This year witnesses a change, and while the old scrappers were there and succeeded in having some men of their particular liking on the ticket, the work was accomplished in a harmonious manner and the men nominated stand as candidates of the citizens of Elgin, and not candidates representing the church and saloon sides and factions.

The election, which will be held on next Monday, will be a spirited affair, but promises to be free from mud slinging and dirty politics.

come as they used to—are the kind of men that need MI-O-NA.

Besides being a peerless remedy for indigestion MI-O-NA is a most pronounced tonic.

ed feeling through the day and pass restless nights, trying unsuccessfully
