OGDEN AUDITOR HAS MALADY

HAS BEEN CRITICALLY ILL FOR NEARLY TWO WEEKS.

Suffering With Disease Which Puzzles Attending Physicians.

Suffering with a malady which is puzzling the attending physicians, E. J. Bassett, chief auditor of the Amalgamated Sugar company, with headquarters at Ogden, is in the local hospital in a serious condition. About two weeks ago he was detailed to the La Grande factory to assist in getting out reports and to audit the books. A day or two after his arrival he was taken seriously ill and has been at the hospital continually since. His malady is one which is so strange that attending physicians have difficulty in diagnosing it. His wife and child have arrived from Ogden and other relatives have been called to his bedside.

BRAKEMAN HURT BY FALL

SEVERAL TEETH KNOCKED OUT
AND FACE BRUISED.

Brakeman Morran Has Painful Fall at Huntington Yards.

To stumble and fall, striking his face on a rail in the yards at Huntington, was the unfortunate experience of Passenger brakeman Morran, a young man in the Pendleton-Huntington passenger service. Morran was equipping the first section of No. 17 this morning at Huntington and just before the train was to leave the terminal yards, stepped across an adjoining track after some equipment. He stumbled and struck his face on a rail, knocking out several teeth and otherwise sustaining injuries necessitating his remaining in Huntington for medical attention.

Brakeman Childers of the branch run was called out and took Morran's place here, going on to Pendleton.

Children Bring Good Prices.

Washington March 15.—(Special)—That the only salable property remaining to the starving people in the Chinese counties of Nanchow and Lengchen are their children, which are being exchanged for food, is the statement of Consul Wilder, in a report to the state department from Nanking, China. In these two counties alone, he estimates the number of starving at three quarters of a million.

Outside the city of Nanking, 100,000 famine refugees are without food or clothing, and are sleeping in the mud in the open air. Thousands are even lying in the water, the living mingling with the corpses of the dead, which the authorities have failed to remove from the refugee camps.

In the famine districts, the people are dying so rapidly that no attempt is made to number the fatalities. By imperial edict, taxes have been remitted in three of the famine districts, and it is expected that similar action will be taken throughout the entire famine region.

Consul Wilder reports that the money expended for famine relief is being honestly expended. The American Red Cross and the state department are co-operating in sending the money contributed in the United States, to China, but much more is needed.
