SUSPECT TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

WASHTUCNA SHOOTING AFFAIR IS CAUSE FOR ARREST.

Suspect Found to Be Entirely Free From Description of Murderer.

A tramp coming across the mountains from Pendleton was arrested here by request of the conductor in charge of the train last night, as a suspected principal in the killing of Engineer Lowe at Washtucna a few nights ago, but was released this forenoon on thorough examination by Chief of Police Walden.
To the conductor in charge of the east bound train the fellow had many resemblances to the meagre descriptions of the man who shot Lowe and by telegraphing on ahead was able to have the local police arrest the man when the train arrived in La Grande.
It was found, however, that the man lacked essential characteristics which seem to distinguish the murderer. Chief of Police Walden found that the fellow did not jibe with the descriptions at all and he has been released and allowed to proceed on his way.

AN UNFOUGHT DUEL.

The Way the Father of His Country Avenged a Blow.

It is narrated that on one occasion in his early manhood Washington came very near the settlement of a dispute, so common in those days, by fighting a duel. But as he was the one who should have issued the challenge he had the still greater courage to apologize and admit that he was in the wrong.

It was in the town of Alexandria, where the young Virginia colonel was quartered with his troops, that an election dispute occurred, and in the heat of the party excitement Washington told a Mr. Payne that he lied. That gentleman at once replied with a blow that knocked the young colonel down. Word having reached the barracks that their beloved commander had been killed, his soldiers rushed to the city to avenge him. He met them, however, quieted them, and they returned to their quarters.

Mr. Payne, on receiving a note from Washington the next morning asking him to call at his lodgings, supposed it was, of course, to give the colonel opportunity to demand "satisfaction" for the blow he had received the day before. Imagine his surprise when, instead of finding pistols or swords ready for a duel, Washington greeted him with outstretched hand, saying: "I believe I was wrong yesterday. You have already had some satisfaction, and if you deem that sufficient here is my hand. Let us be friends."—H. A. Ogden in St. Nicholas.
