NEW COUNCIL IN FULL CONTROL

POPCORN ORDINANCE KILLED—MANY ASSESSMENTS UNPAID.

Mayor Richardson Announces Personnel of New Committees.

- ◆ Council Committees
- ◆ Ways and means—Dunn, Fleming, Logsdon.
- ◆ Streets and alley—Dunn, Mackey, Davis, Finley.
- ◆ Finance—Logsdon, Church, Orvis.
- ◆ Water, health and sewer—Orvis, Church, Mackey.
- ◆ Fire and police—Church, Mackey, Davis.
- ◆ Judiciary—Fleming, Orvis, Logsdon.
- ◆ President of council—W. J. Church.

Cleaning up much of the hang-over business and turning over affairs to the new city council the retiring council met in special session last Saturday night. To kill the popcorn ordinance was the first matter transacted and the proposition of collecting assessments against property owners on avenues where macadam work and bitulithic paving has been done, came up for considerable attention. It was found on investigation that many have not paid their assessments or commenced installments and the chief of police was ordered to collect these assessments at once, using the power of the city charter to aid him. The charter provides that the city may file a lien on such property and that is what is to be done in this case.

There was little ado over the transfer of councilmen. Councilman Finley was not present but Councilmen-elect Claude Mackey of the second ward and Councilman-elect E. C. Davis of the first ward were escorted to their seats by Councilmen Orvis and Dunn.

Just before the transfer however, retiring President of the Council W. N. Monroe thanked the council for co-operation and assistance given in all committee and council deliberations as a whole. The election of W. J. Church ended the work of the newly-seated council for the evening. Mayor Richardson, who presided, announced the personnel of the new committees and they are listed above. The three men to leave the council are A. V. Andrews of the second ward who perhaps more than any other man is responsible for the commencement of paving and permanent street improvements; W. N. Monroe and John Sheak of the fourth ward.
