EASTERN MAIDEN CARD FLOODED

APPEAL TO GOVERNOR WEST FORTH LOCAL CARDS.

La Grande Will Have Place in Album Compiled in Jersey City.

Miss Howard Florence, 204 Olean avenue, Jersey City, New Jersey, will not have to appeal to Governor West for postal cards to complete her view book of Oregon, for she is going to be supplied without political pull hereafter. Considerable interest has been created in local real estate and boosting circles by the appearance in Portland papers of an incident where a Jersey City maiden of tender years appealed to Governor West for postal cards to fill her album. In keeping with this appeal, the governor of course sent her postal cards, but a La Grande girl has taken the cue and she, too, has sent La Grande scenes and this city will be represented in the little book. Miss Lillian C. Benham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Benham, has already forwarded a couple of postal cards carrying La Grande and orchard scenes and others will follow. Portland advices say that children from all over the state are writing letters and postal cards and her Oregon book will be filled to overflowing long before she might have any hopes of getting it well under way.

In her letter to Governor West the little girl says: "To the Governor of Oregon: Dear Sir—I am a little girl ten years old, studying about the states of the union and I am trying to make a view book of each state. I would be very glad if you would kindly send me a scenery postal from your state. As I know no other way to get them I ask the favor of you. Hoping to receive one in reply to my note, I am, respectfully yours, Miss FLORENCE HOWARD. "204 Olean avenue, Jersey City, N. J."

NEW STORE IS READY

WILL OPEN DOORS TO PUBLIC ON WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Large Line of Novelties is the Stock That is Carried.

The new Cash Bazaar located in the room next to the Home Telephone company's office is filled with a large line of novelty goods and on Wednesday morning the doors of the Cash Bazaar, a new commercial institution in La Grande, will be thrown open for business.

Nothing in this store will sell for over 25 cents and the buyer certainly has a large stock to select from. La Grande has never had an exclusive store of this kind and it is predicted the new institution will enjoy a good business.

H. R. Blackwell, who owns the Cash Bazaar, said today: "I am indeed delighted with La Grande. Before coming here I searched the northwest country pretty thoroughly and decided upon this as the best town I saw. There is more here to make a city and there is a better and more permanent growth apparent than elsewhere. For this reason I have chosen this as my home and intend to enter the business field with an idea of calling the Grande Ronde valley by permanent abiding place."

"IRON MASTER" HERE.

Will Be Shown for Three Days at the Isis Theatre This Week.

The management of the Isis theatre has been fortunate in securing the early chance at the film, "The Iron Master." It will be shown tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday only.

The Edison company has taken that well-known drama, "The Iron Master" which has stood the test of years, and painted it upon the canvas of the silent drama in a strong, vital form, telling the story clearly and distinctly, yet without marling in any way the beauty of the original.

The story is told in France and deals with high society. The principal character, the Iron Master, is a strong, true character of sterling worth who is deeply in love with Claire de Beaulieu, the daughter of a noble family living near to his estate, while she in turn is fondly devoted to Gaston, the Duke de Bligny, and also engaged to him. He, however, is a gentleman of wild habits and eventually loses all his fortune at the gambling table. This fact soon becomes known to Maudette, a "financier" who has more money than manner and whose one desire is to marry his daughter into well society. Being in a position to know of Claire's financial state, he accuses the duke of her entire loss of fortune, and then offers to pay off all his debts if he will marry his daughter. This the duke consents to do, and Claire, becoming acquainted with the fact, is so deeply humiliated that she, upon the spur of the moment, accepts the hand of the Iron Master in marriage.

On the wedding night he learns of the true state of her heart. He is crushed and broken but still the Iron Master, and he decides that she shall live side by side but that she shall be his wife in name only. She at last realizes the strength and steadfastness of his love when he defends her honor and the insult which the Duke de Bligny her former lover, has heaped upon her. A duel between the two ensues, and on the morning before she begs for his love, but not until after he has left for the dueling grounds does she learn what is to take place and that he married her knowing she was penniless.

She reaches the dueling spot just in time to save the Iron Master's life and almost forfeits her own instead. It is needless to say that the Iron Master wins her love, and the picture closes with the knowledge that a bright future is in store for them both.

The M. & M. company expects to receive at once a Flanders "20." This popular car can be had for demonstration purposes within the next few days.

RADIANT HAIR.

Any Woman Can Have It by Using Parisian Sage.

Madam: If your hair isn't just what you would like it to be why don't you use Parisian Sage.

If it does not put life and luster into the hair and cause it to grow abundantly you can have your money back. "I cannot say enough in its favor, from Newlin Drug company. Two years ago I lost all my hair. I saw Parisian Sage advertised and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished using the first bottle my hair had stopped falling and my head was covered with new hair; also removed all dandruff and today I have a lovely head of hair.

"I think Parisian Sage the best hair restorer and dandruff cure in the world today. It also makes the hair clean, fluffy, and silky, and I would recommend it to every one who wishes a hair restorer and beautifier."—Miss Mary E. Dickson, 287 South avenue, Bridgeton, N. J. 1910.

For men, women and children, there is no hair preparation that equals Parisian Sage; it never disappoints; it does just what the American makers advertise it to do. It banishes dandruff, kills the dandruff germ, stops falling hair or scalp itch, or money back. Sold by Newlin Drug company and druggists everywhere. Large bottle 50 cents.

Warning to Railroad Men.

Look out for sever and even dangerous kidney and bladder trouble resulting from years of railroadng. Geo. E. Bell, 623 Third street, Fort Wayne, Ind., was many years a conductor on the Nickel Plate. He says: "Twenty years of railroadng left my kidneys in terrible condition. There was a continual pain across my back and hips and my kidneys gave me much distress, and the action of my bladder was frequent and most painful. I got a supply of Foley Kidney Pills and the first bottle made a wonderful improvement and four bottles cured me completely. Since being cured I have recommended Foley Kidney Pills to many of my railroad-friends." Hill's drug store.
