The the 300 strikers who have threatened stock was pitted against the best from a half dozen states.

Other Victories, Too.

But the sweeping prize winning under sweepstake classes was not the only honor coming to the Grande Ronde valley. The string of beeves walked off at 12 o'clock today, with the following:

First money for two-year-olds. Second money for second best two-year-olds. Fourth money for best three-yearolds.

At 2 o'clock there are two more prizes yet to hear from and Mr. Mc-Kennon and Mr. Chandler are hopeful of placing in them as well.

Local stockmen, when told of the victories at the Portland Stock show, expressed their highest pleasure. When the glow of the news had worked itself through commercial circles. the stock growers' friends dreamed through the sunny afternoon, of what they are missing by not being near the jubilant stockmen in Portland; they pictured a vision of two Grande Ronde stockmen in Portland wearing the smile that grows always broader Uncertainty Still Exists but Matters and never wears off.

However, all agree that the distinction is a meritorious one, and places Grande Ronde valley in a high plane in cattle raising as well as in horse breeding.
