COUGAR KILLED PIONEER HORSE BY YEOMAN PASSES

BULLET STOPS LEAP AT THE HUNTER IN PURSUIT.

Chase Lasts for Two Hours Through Jungles About Kamela.

Kamela, March 28.—(Special)—Thrilling cougar escapes are becoming frequent in Kamela and on the heels of the latest sensation occurring a few months ago, comes W. H. Hewitt of Huron with a story of narrow escapes but eventual surrendery of the animals. Mr. Hewitt who is cutting wood for Franklin Truax, the Kamela merchant, found some cougar tracks a few days ago and commence to follow them. His son, nearby, was called into service and for about two hours the men trailed behind the cougars until they came to some thick brush near the head of a deep canyon. Here they found where the animals had spent the night and at the same time the men stumbled onto the predatory beasts. One of them had climbed a tree and was hanging to the branches while the other two remained at the foot. The cougar in the tree had seen the men before they caught a glimpse of him and just as he was about to leap from his perch to the men below, Hewitt got his eye on the beast and shot instantly.

Though the cougar came to earth with a crash he was able to crawl and with much alacrity hid himself under some bushes where a few minutes later he was found dead. The other two took flight. Fifteen dollars was realized for the pelt of the dead cougar, the station agent at Huron buying it.

SAID TO BE ONE OF THE LAST TO CROSS PLAIN.

Pioneer Animal Came to Meacham 28 Years Ago—Trusty Always.

Kamela, March 28.—(Special)—What is thought to be the pioneer horse in Union county or Eastern Oregon either, died here yesterday and removes what is said, on good authority, to be the last horse in Union county that was brought across the plains with the rush of immigration to this section of the state by the prairie schooner route. The horse was owned by George Allen of Kamela who also claimed another distinction for his horse and that is that he was one of the last to cross the plains.

Colle was the animal's name and he was a trusty animal, too. Up to the time of his death, he was faithful and industrious and though not misused, was able to work this winter at Kamela.

Twenty-eight years ago Colle was brought across the plains and put to work at Meacham. He was kept in that section of the state for several years, finally reaching Kamela and worked there this winter. Death was apparently of old age.

The man who drinks to excess needs treatment for his condition. The Orrine treatment can be used with absolute confidence. It destroys all desire for whiskey, beer and other intoxicants. It is a simple treatment, it is given in the home—no sanitarium expense—no loss of time from work. It is an inexpensive treatment. Many men spend more in a day for whiskey and beer for their friends and themselves than would pay for the treatment.

We are so sure that Orrine will benefit you that we say to you that if after a trial you fail to get any benefit from its use, we will give your money back.

ORRINE is prepared in two forms. No. 1, secret treatment, a powder, absolutely tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink. ORRINE No. 2, in pill form is for those who desire to take voluntary treatment. ORRINE costs only $1.00 a box. Write for free ORRINE Booklet (mailed in plain sealed envelope) to ORRINE CO., Orrine Building, Washington, D. C. ORRINE is recommended and is for sale in this city by O. E. Silverthorne, Depot Street.

Husky Dogs of Labrador.

All along the coast at every Eskimo encampment and about the cabins of the liveyeres are numbers of husky dogs. In winter these animals pull the sledges and form the sole means of travel or communication from settlement to settlement. During the summer they are not fed by their owners, but are left to seek their sustenance as best they can; hence the hungry brutes range the land near the coast and add to the problems of Labrador, as they permit no creature to live that they can pull down. If a horse were to be turned out to grass overnight only its bare bones would be found in the morning. Even to human beings they are sometimes dangerous when night begins to fall, and on occasion when hard driven by hunger they have been known to attack children in the day. Considering they are hardly ever fed in the summer, one only wonders that there are not more ill deeds to set to their account. —Wide World Magazine.

A Tramp's Story.

"You say you were once the editor of a newspaper?"
 "Yes, lady, and it was a very bright little sheet, if I do say it."
 "How does it happen, then, that you are forced to ask at back doors for meals?"
 "It is merely a case of the irony of fate. I had a printer who was near-sighted, and one afternoon when he made up the paper he got a wedding notice and a murder trial mixed, so that after describing the costume of the bride it said the condemned man almost collapsed when sentence was pronounced." —Chicago Record Herald.

A Way to Do It.

Mrs. Binks—The people in the next suit to ours are awfully annoying. They actually pound on the wall every time our Mamie sings. I wish we knew of some way to drive them out of the flat.
 "Why not have Mamie keep on singing?" —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THOUGH EXTRA SESSION A WEEK HENCE, SOLONS ASSEMBLE.

Accommodations Being sought Out by New Men and "Books."

Washington, D. C., March 28.—Although the Sixty-second congress does not convene until a week from today a large number of the members of both branches have already arrived in the capital. The extra session will be the beginning of an altogether new congress, of whose members 141 will take their places for the first time and many of whom have never visited Washington before for any length of time. Consequently they put in an appearance early, for it is necessary to engage accommodations and attend to innumerable other details that will come easy to the veteran members but frequently are a cause of much annoyance and no little embarrassment to the newcomer. The majority of the new members, excepting some who possess ample means and a disposition to spend, put up at one of the big hotels for a few days after their arrival and then look about for suitable accommodations in the "hash belt," a term familiarly applied to a large section within easy access of the capitol containing row after row of boarding and rooming houses.
