LOCAL ATTORNEY HEADS CLUBS

T. H. CRAWFORD IS PRESIDENT OF EASTERN OREGON LEAGUE

Forfeit Money to Insure Completion of the Playing Season.

Systematized business methods will be applied by the four towns to be represented in what is known as the Eastern Oregon Baseball league this summer, comprising Baker, Union, La Grande and Elgin and having Judge T. H. Crawford at its head as president. The meeting of representatives in Baker last Sunday resulted in the complete organization of a league which is to be run on a manner different to former years in that the clubs each post forfeits of $250 which will be divided pro rata to the teams playing out the required 18 games. Any team refusing to "stay with the game" will forfeit its share in the division.

In the selection of Judge Crawford the clubs will have a judicious and fair management. Mr. Crawford was the unanimous choice and he has accepted the duties. His chief duties will be the appointment of umpires who are to be paid a weekly salary and as there will be one from each town, the arrangement will be such as to forbid an umpire to officiate at a game where his own town is represented by the participating teams. Hence the La Grande umpire will be sent to one of the four towns where La Grande is not playing. The system is expensive but insures impartial judgment and decision. The umpires are to have complete control and any infraction of baseball rules of order and decency will be severely punished by fines and suspensions.

A board of directors, including one man from each town, will handle the business affairs of the team. The directors appointed, or rather elected, at the Baker meeting consist of Dr. J. R. Price, La Grande; J. L. Hindman, Elgin; Dr. R. J. Vaughn, Baker and Tom Brasher, Union. The other officers are A. W. Nelson, La Grande, secretary and Lewis Fernald, Baker, treasurer.

The season opens April 23 and it closes early in August though the exact playing dates of 12 games only have been fixed.

Baker, Union and Elgin business men have subscribed money freely to promote the league, and because of the additional expense attached for umpires it may be necessary to ask La Grande fans for small donations yet this may be avoided by the selling of season tickets in advance. The first matter to be handled at this time however, is the raising of the $250 forfeit money to be placed in a local bank. The plan in other towns is for the fans who are financially able to do so, to post bankable notes to be cashed or refunded by the president of the league as occasion may demand.
