Conditions and General Information.

Any respectable person over 12 years of age is eligible to enter this contest.

The contest manager reserves the right to reject any nominations, and all candidates must abide by the rules of the contest.

No employe of the Observer is eligible to enter this contest and every candidate will be given the same advice and assistance from the newspaper.

Votes will be issued on renewals and paid-in-advance subscriptions. A coupon and nomination blank will also be published in the Observer, which will count for the number of votes specified thereon.

The first thing to do is to enter your name as a candidate.

Then either call, write or phone the Observer office for a receipt book with which to secure subscriptions.

Then let your friends know you are in the contest, and request them to save their votes for you.

Candidates may nominate themselves or may be nominated by their friends.

Votes will be allowed on subscriptions secured anywhere in the world. Votes not transferable.

Any question which may arise will be settled by the Observer, and its decision will be final.

Send in Your Nomination.

You will find a nomination blank in this paper. It is good for 1,000 votes, which give you a fine start.

Then enlist the aid of your friends and neighbors. Use your telephone. Let everyone know that you are a candidate before they promise their help to a more enterprising contestant.

Be ambitious and determined to win. If you have friends you can not see at once, write them.

Votes will be given on both new and old subscription payments.

Call or send to the Observer office for a receipt book. The contest manager will be glad to have you call so that he can explain details and give you helpful plans. Telephone or write if you cannot call and a representative will give you full details in person or in letter.

Secure every coupon and nomination blank as soon as you can, as they all count. But work for the votes issued by payments on subscription, for they count the most.

You Can Easily Win a Prize.

For every payment made in subscription, on and after April 1, a vote certificate is issued. You can circulate among the patrons of the Observer and gather up these certificates.

Your Friends Will Help You.

Hundreds of people will have no personal friends in the contest. You can secure their friendship and subscriptions IF YOU ONLY ASK THEM. They will also secure votes for you FROM THEIR FRIENDS.

Increase Your Vote Each Day.

Don't lose a single day. Get some subscriptions each day. That is the way to win out. Get a receipt book and start at once.

Distribution of Prizes.

To insure a just distribution of prizes over the field of this newspaper, the territory has been divided into three districts. Certain prizes are allotted each district. Candidates within a district compete with one another. For certain prizes the districts may compete against one another. But in the main the competition is within the districts themselves.

To the Portland Rose Festival, beginning June 5, the highest candidates in each district will be taken as follows:

Four from the city of La Grande; four from Union county outside of La Grande; three from Wallowa county, Pine and Eagle valley.

Free for All.

The three winning candidates who, at the end of the contest have the most votes, may extend their trips to San Francisco, as guests of this newspaper.

The next four winning candidates, who, at the end of the contest range in numerical order in standing in votes, may extend their trips to seaside or Columbia river summer resorts.

In lieu of the trips, scholarships in music and in schools may be selected. Before the end of the contest a list of such optional or exchange prizes will be announced. Prizes may be added as the contest proceeds and as the number of candidates multiplies, to the end that a proper proportion of all those who actively compete may receive prizes.

EXTRA MID-CONTEST PRIZES WILL BE ADDED

As the contest proceeds extra prizes will be given to those who attain the highest standing. Those who begin at once and vigorously prosecute a campaign for votes in the very beginning of the contest are the most likely to win the extra prizes.

Get in line; get in touch with the contest manager by letter or by personal interview at once.
