PERSONALS

H. O. Swain of Spokane is a guest at the Sommer today.

W. V. Saygre of Portland is a Sommer hotel guest.

Miss Jennie Gregory, of Seattle, was a guest at the Foley last evening.

John F. Kellum of Baker was registered at the Savoy last night.

Mrs. J. D. Maxwell, of Palmer Junction, was a Savoy guest today.

E. Butler of Pendleton, an O.-W. employe, is at the Sommer today.

G. B. Mann, of St. Paul, selling hardware, is at the Sommer today.

Mrs. J. S. Houck and Miss Sadie Houck stopped at the Sommer last night.

Miss Hazel Theisen is home from Portland where she has been spending the winter attending school.

George Chandler, the cattle buyer, is home from a business trip to Portland.

George E. Bratton, of Goldfield, Nevada, is a guest at the Savoy hotel today.

J. M. Hagey was in from Starkey last night. He was quartered at the Savoy.

Elmer Moran and Charles L. Washburn of Pendleton, are guest of the Foley today.

L. L. Thomas of Detroit, arrived in La Grande last evening and is stopping at the Foley hotel.

H. M. Rieff, the Pacific Biscuit company agent, with headquarters at Baker was at the Sommer last night.

Mrs. A. B. Hall of Roswell, Idaho, is at the Sommer while transacting business here.

F. F. Welshire of Telocuset was in the city last night and stopped at the Sommer.

I. F. Hart of Pleasanton, Neb., is at the Sommer and is looking for a location in this section. He prefers unimproved land.

Helen Sterling, of Waterloo, Iowa, passed through the city last night en route to Joseph and stopped at the Sommer while here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Moors and family will make their future home in Milton, arrangements for moving their household goods having been made.

Mrs. Dan Sommer and Mrs. H. G. Masterson of Elgin were guests at the Sommer last evening while visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. George H. Currey is today in a satisfactory condition following an operation at the Grande Ronde hospital by Doctor Mollitor yesterday. Her condition is still critical and not without danger of relapse.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien, Assistant General Manager J. D. Stack, Superintendent William Bollons, Superintendent of Car Service J. Meyers and Superintendent of Motive Power J. F. Graham constitute the O.-W. officials who returned last night from Joseph and went on east today on a tour of inspection, in private cars 0 and 02.

G. H. North, a hat man of Seattle, F. E. Ramsey, the Portland candy man, R. A. Woodburn, the American Steel and Wire representative of Portland, E. A. Payton of Portland, who is calling on the Bolton & Bodmer concern, Chas. A. Hoff, a millinery representative from Portland, B. Burnett of Portland, and Claude Bloom of Portland were Sommer hotel guests last night.

George E. Shields, of Manhattan, Kansas, is looking over the valley today.

Mr. and Mrs. David Erichoux left last night for Portland where they will spend several days on business and pleasure.

Miss Rachel Turner, stenographer at the Williamson land office, went to Pendleton this morning and will visit friends a few days before returning to resume her work here.

E. M. Brown of New York, T. N. Biddle of Philadelphia, A. M. Roff of Seattle, L. C. Ross of New York and J. C. Mann of San Francisco are among the Foley hotel guests today.

Billy Vogel was over from Union last evening boosting as usual for his town and the horse show that is to be held there on June 1st. Billy says it is to be the best ever this year and there is reason to believe that his conclusions are correct. He was quartered at the Foley last night.

Gerald Moore left this morning for Milton, Oregon, where he goes to join his father, E. C. Moore who has charge of the Milton railroad station. The family will leave Saturday for their new home. Mr. and Mrs. P. C. French have rented the Moore home on Fourth street.

D. L. Aikens and wife and daughter, Miss Grace, arrived this morning from Stillwater, Oklahoma, and will probably locate in either this or the Wallowa valley. Mr. Aikens took a thorough look at this section of Oregon last fall and his return indicates the impression received then. A successful farmer and prominent in the business and social life of Oklahoma, having served as a member of the board of agriculture and just retiring from the position of grand master of the Stillwater lodge of I. O. O. F., he is of the class of citizenship that Oregon welcomes.

OLD TIME NEWSPAPER MAN HERE

Gerald Volk, of Wichita, Kansas, is Seeing the Country.

One of the old fashioned newspaper men of Kansas, Gerald Volk, arrived in the city this morning on his way to Wallowa county to see the country. He is a pioneer in the business and seldom did a state association meet in Kansas for many years when Gerald Volk was not in attendance. Lately he has been located at Forest Grove.

NEW BAKERY OPENS SATURDAY

"The Model" Will Serve the People in the Future.

Today C. H. Lenhart, of the Model Bakery, announced to the Evening Observer that Saturday will be the opening day for the new institution. Mr. Lenhart has associated with him Dell Jackson, one of the popular young men of La Grande, and the two know the bakery business from start to finish. They have leased the room next door to the Royal Grocery and are having it fitted up in the most modern manner. On Saturday morning their line of bakery goods will be open to the public and they contemplate a nice business here, because of their familiarity with the work and their desire to serve the public in the most approved manner.
