les. Give his name and office location.

NUMBER 42.—Groceries, enamelware, crockery, tinware, notions, toys, blankets, underwear, cut glass, stationery—this forms the basis of a big stock of goods. It is the widest variety store in town. It has now 30x50 feet in dimensions and every foot of space occupied with attractive goods and salespeople. It has been a going establishment for 18 months. It is the place where they give premiums with coffee, spice and baking powder—just like finding them. It is the only place here where you will find the Chesterfield shoes for men, the Sorority fine shoes for women and the Golden Days school shoes. What is the name and location?

NUMBER 43.—At what harness store will you find Hanford's Balsam of Myrrh? This harness store has not been running more than a hundred years. It has been successful because (1) of superior skill in the profession, (2) its patrons not only get good goods and good work but they get good cheer along with it. We always doff our hat to the dispenser of good cheer, and we are not different from other people in this respect. But about harness, he has 'em of all kinds, and saddles too, and robes, whips, blankets, spurs bits, and turf goods of all kinds. He makes his harness right in the shop, and they are worth more than the store kind. Does repairing of all kinds. Give the name and location.

NUMBER 44.—This Drug Store is a drug store you will naturally think of first as the kind you like to support by giving them your patronage, and with pleasure, as they have all the modern equipment a drug store should have, and keep a good force of help that is thoroughly posted as druggists. They have a well-kept soda fountain, of course and in charge of an expert soda water man. They have a large and well-kept stock, and occupy a prominent location and keep a good stock of books, candles, etc. They are always glad to have you call and glad to have you bring your friends. Give their name and location.

NUMBER 45.—This number represents a very active man in U. S. land office practice. He has been following this line of business, officially and unofficially, for 20 years. What he does not know about government land, and land laws, would fill a very insignificant book. He is prepared to furnish information regarding lands in any township in the La Grande district for only 50c a township. He practices before the land office in every capacity. You are to give his name and the location of his office.

NUMBER 46.—Here is represented a dentist who has been practicing here for a period of 20 years—a longer period than any other dentist in the city. He has a clientele that reaches into the very best families of the city and surrounding country. Many of his first patrons here are now sending the younger members of the family to him for their dental work. He was a member of the State Board of Dental Examiners from 1904 to 1907. His office is nicely equipped, and he has kept up with progress in every detail of dentistry. He wears a name that all Americans are proud to honor. Give the name and location.

NUMBER 47.—At what leading footwear emporium do you find these brands of men's fine shoes; Johnston & Murphy, Howard & Foster, and Kelley Buckley; in workshoes, Holland's and Wineburg's, in women's fine shoes they have Krippendorf-Dittman's, the C. P. Ford and Gupilli's, in school shoes they have the Iris. These brands are unexcelled anywhere. They have footwear for the whole family and they are known to be the "price-makers." It is the same store where you find the 'Onyx' hosiery. It is the same store where they have the modern repair shop—electric machinery, quick and satisfactory from every standpoint. Give the name and location.

NUMBER 48.—What is the name of the new amusement hall where there is nothing but pool tables—no billiards? It is a popular place, growing more so every day. The leading brands of imported and domestic cigars and tobacco can also be found here. It is on a corner. It is the place to turn your idle hours into busy minutes. It is named after the 41st state of the Union. Give the name and location.

NUMBER 49.—This is a drug store not the kind that advertises a linen- of such power that when applied to a dog's tail would cause it to grow out again, and again applied to the stub end, picked up from the dust of the street, would cause a new dog to grow out—but the kind that sells all first-class, dependable goods, standard removers and sundries. It is the store that has made such a hit with confectionery and Kodaks, lines in which it leads. It has been established in this city under the present management but eight months. It has built up a reputation for the prompt and accurate filling of physician's prescriptions. Give the name and location. You can omit one letter from the name and it will still be right.

NUMBER 50.—In what leading grocery can be purchased the famous Chase & Sanborn coffees. There is only one place in town where they can be found. Chase & Sanborn teas and coffees are known the world over as the sine qua non of excellence, and they selected this store to handle their product here because it stands as a representative of the higher class of groceries. This grocery store has the electric scales, the electric coffee mill, the latest meat slicer, the most modern equipment throughout. Their wagons go all over the city and if you will watch where they stop you will find where the best families live. Give name and location.

NUMBER 51.—What is the name and location of the "sparker" who sets things going in the electrical line all around this country? They carry every kind of electrical merchandise, motors, gas and electric fixtures, lamps, electric irons, etc. Furnish estimates on all kinds of electrical work, take contracts in all parts of the county. They make a specialty of farm-lighting outfits. There are many new things coming out in the electrical line all the time; it will pay you to drop into this store occasionally just to see how far behind the times you have lapsed.

NUMBER 52.—Bottled health and pleasure, that is the business of this concern. There are very few flavors of carbonated beverages that they do not make, and the superiority of their goods has created a lively demand for them. They are better prepared this season for the business than ever before. Their wagon will deliver the product in the city and nearby points will be supplied by freight and express. It is an industry that does lots of good advertising for La Grande. Give the name and location of the works, and always see that your soft drinks are "made in La Grande."

NUMBER 53.—In what large store will you find the Monarch malleable ranges, the O. V. B. cutlery, the Lowe Bros.' paints, the Domo cream separators; and in the furniture line the Sealey mattresses, the Macey bookcases, the Twin Pedestal tables, and many other exclusive and superior lines of merchandise. This store occupies three floors and a basement and has them all filled. It has been making history here for 15 years. They carry complete lines of hardware, house-furnishing goods, builders' blacksmiths', wagonmakers', miners' and plumbers' supplies, pumps, windmills, guns, ammunition and fishing tackle. They have the exclusive agency here for the Mikado roofing. You are to give the name and location of this establishment.

NUMBER 54.—This number represents a skilled veterinarian whose name and location you are to give. He has been practicing here years and has established a reputation that makes him authority on all animal diseases. He is not of the class of veterinarians one of whom, legend says, was called upon to minister to a sick man in the absence of a physician, and frankly told the anxious friends that he could not cure the disease the man had, but that he could give him something to turn it into the "botts" and then he could cure the "botts." He treats all kinds of animals and the people of this valley keep him pretty busy all the time. He is the oldest veterinarian in the valley. Give his name and location.

NUMBER 55.—There is a satisfaction about buying paints and wall paper from a dealer who has the technical knowledge which enables him to advise and counsel his patrons as to the blending of colors and numerous other details which the ordinary dispenser of paints from a mixed stock of merchandise knows nothing about. This well known paint store carries a full line of paints, oils, varnishes, wall paper, etc. This store has not been doing business in this city more than 100 years. They are exclusive sales agents here for the Acme quality new Era paints, the best paint manufactured. Also do contracting in painting and decorating of all kinds. What is the name and location?

NUMBER 56.—There is in this city a corsetiere who is exclusive agent for the celebrated Gossard corset; also who has had ample experience and can fit and demonstrate. These corsets will produce the long, slender, sweeping lines to the figures. They are recommended by both physicians and dressmakers. What is her name?

NUMBER 57.—Who is the scientific optician of La Grande. Also give the location of his office. This party has been practicing in this city about four years in all. It has been discovered that headaches, indigestion, nervousness, insomnia and many other reflexes which have puzzled the medical fraternity for years, are caused by the unbalanced muscles of the eyes. In office you will get the very best re- no other branch of science is there suits. He grinds all his own lenses need for more careful diagnosis, and and is thoroughly competent to meet for accurate fitting of lenses. At this any emergency.
