

FAIR PEOPLE AT WORK EARLY

BANQUET ANNOUNCED FOR APRIL TWENTY-FIFTH.

Early Start Will Insure Another Year of County Fair Success.

Initial county fair plans were set last night when the fair association met in an informal way to discuss further plans for the 1911 fair. The outcome of the meeting was to announce a banquet for April 25 at which time a live and active board will be elected to if possible duplicate the success of the last board's endeavors. The fair will be boomed from now on and the members of the association are taking hold of the proposition with a vim. The success of the past two years has made the association permanent and by beginning now the third year should be even more of a success.

START WORK ON SIXTH TODAY

FOURTH STREET PAVING CONTRACT FINISHED THIS WEEK.

Teams Commence Grading of Steep Hill Near Court House Today.

Completion of the Fourth street paving project and commencement of the Sixth street grading preliminary to bluish paving are the day's announcement from Warren Construction company headquarters.

Supintendent Sullivan today predicted the completion of the Fourth street work by tomorrow night—the work has been done rapidly in anticipation of detrimental weather.

Work on Sixth street was commenced today when teams were put on to cut down the hill near the court house. The grading there will be the biggest piece of such work yet undertaken in preparation for paving. Many are inclined to believe that a 12 per cent grade will be too steep for use in winter months but engineers and paving men affirm otherwise.

"SQUAWMAN" AT STEWARD TOUCHING.

Containing sentiment that plucked at the heart strings of motherhood and fatherhood, lacking, however, in any material lesson or teaching, "The Squawman" was presented at the Steward last night in a somewhat capable manner. The cast could easily be improved upon, but the story the actors presented ran parallel with that which touches tender chords in father and mother. The story is well-nigh a tragedy but the last curtain is not rung down until a streak of hope is shot into the pathetic string of scenes and allows the audience to go away with slightly less saddened hearts. The tragedy facing the "Squawman" is erased by a tragedy. That about tells the story. It is a sentimental story but was not presented with the finish that it should have been.

At the Isis.

Another fine program commenced at the Isis this afternoon and will continue tomorrow. Outside the feature, "Little Sister," there is one picture which all parents should take their children to see. It is a Vitagraph entirely for children and is graph entirely for children with that clever and favorite boy actor, Master Dennis Sullivan taking a leading part. It is a lovely story by the eminent authoress, Miss Kate Gre naway. Easter Sunday the patrons of the popular house will enjoy a special arrangement of Easter music rehearsals for which are now in an advanced stage.

It is a special arrangement by Musical Director Chas. E. King and will be sung by that popular trio, Miss Garrick (soprano) Mr. Ferrin (tenor) and Mr. Bluff (baritone).

At the Arcade Theatre.

The program at the Arcade this change is up to the usual standard of this popular house. The Golden Sickle

Urban is an excellently photographed film showing the results of a love match between a hunter and a Druid priestess.

Heart Beats of Long Ago. It's a Biograph. A strong dramatic story telling of a feud between two families when a love affair developed between two families who had been nursing a feud for a number of years it meant death to some one. Staging and costuming are elaborate.

Felling a Smokestack, Erbin. A graphic illustration of how a huge chimney was thrown down. It is a thrilling moment just as the tall structure topples to the ground.

Bertha's Mission, a vitagraph comedy. The adventures of a society girl who thought she was chosen to reform the world. It is a good live comedy and also teaches a good lesson.

Mr. Cowan will sing Ogalallo, a very clever Indian song.

MANAGER ASHLEY RESIGNS.

Baker Commercial Club Manager Prepares to Leave for the East.

A. S. Ashley last night handed in his resignation as publicity manager of the Baker Commercial club. His resignation to take effect May 1. His contract with the club does not expire until June, but he desires this extra time to prepare for his trip east. The club accepted his resignation and also voted to contribute funds for his eastern trip, on which he will advertise Eastern Oregon, says the Baker Herald.

The club has been a live one since Mr. Ashley has been here and the majority of the members have been satisfied with his work. The community advertising plan, which was entered into with the O. R. & N., has brought good results and greater things can be expected in the future. Mr. Ashley has looked after the correspondence of the club, sending out thousands of pieces of literature and also represented the club on various occasions at public meetings and has done much in bringing its work before the people.

Mrs. Currey Improves.

Mrs. George H. Currey is resting easily today following an operation two days ago and is giving encouragement to her friends for immediate and complete recovery.

COMES WELL RECOMMENDED.

New Creamery Man Stands Well at His Former Home.

Following the lease of the Gold Leaf creamery by Ward Emigh the Walla Walla commercial club sent the following letter of recommendation to the La Grande club:

Walla Walla, Wn., April 10.—Commercial club, La Grande, Oregon. Gentlemen: We have just learned that our fellow citizen, Mr. Ward Emigh, is about to open a creamery in your city and we wish to commend him to the good people of La Grande and vicinity as a thorough business man, an expert in his business and a good wide-awake substantial citizen.

He started in the business here a number of years ago and has built up a business from nothing to more than $100,000 annually.

We trust that he may be as successful in your community as he has in this.

Very truly yours,
A. C. MOORE, Secretary,
L. M. BROWN, Publicity Mgr.,
Walla Walla Commercial Club.
EUGENE TAUSSICK, Mayor.
