PERSONALS

Mr. Anderson is quartered at the Foley.

Sidney Lyle of Portland is registered at the Foley.

Miss Irene Smith of Portland is visiting friends in La Grande.

J. D. Wallace of Minneapolis is at the Foley today.

C. H. Brown, a prominent citizen of North Powder, is at the Foley.

R. H. Skill was in from the Lake last evening.

S. R. Haworth went to Union this morning on business matters.

C. C. Saylor and wife, of Louisville, Kentucky, are guests at the Foley today. Mr. Saylor sells tobacco.

John G. McAllister, who sells groceries, came in from Enterprise last evening.

Bothel McKenzie and Anna Fine, of Lostine, are spending today in La Grande.

Mrs. J. D. Sommer and two young daughters left yesterday for Sheridan, Wyo., where Mr. Sommer, a former merchant of Elgin, has located. The family will reside there for an indefinite period, and may become residents of that city. Mrs. Sommer is one of Elgin's most popular ladies and leaves a host of friends here who hope that they may return and again make this place their home. The family has the best wishes of many during their absence.—Elgin Recorder.

Mrs. Arnold Luertger and son Teddy, and Miss Elizabeth Donohue, all of Toledo, Ohio, are here visiting their brother, M. B. Donohue secretary of the Palmer Lumber company. They will remain here for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hickman, former residents of this valley, arrived Saturday from Sonora state, old Mexico, where they have spent the winter. Here they will visit their daughters, Miss Maggie Hickman and Mrs. Ben Rich before making an extended trip through the Eastern states.—Enterprise News-Record.
