La Grande, Oregon, April 7th, 1911.
CITY COUNCIL OF LA GRANDE, OREGON.

By C. M. HUMPHREYS,
Recorder of the City of La Grande, Oregon.

Hotel Gearhart "by-the-sea." Oregon's most beautiful coast resort, will throw its doors wide open to members of the Evening Observer's contest party in June.

Arrangements have been made whereby Hotel Gearhart will entertain four of the young ladies for two days. This will include ocean-view sleeping rooms, meals and tickets for the salt water natatorium.

Gearhart's attractions and amusements are many and as an all-year-round resort is the most popular in the Pacific northwest. The trip from Portland to Gearhart over the Astoria and Columbia River railroad in Pullman observation cars is one of the most scenic rides out of Oregon's metropolises. The trip requires three and one-half hours and the picturesque scenery of the Columbia river is the beautiful panorama that is unfolded while the fast trains speed along.

The Gearhart hotel is one of the most magnificent resorts of the kind in North America. The hotel is steam heated, electric lighted with hot and cold water in all rooms. The table is excellent and the porch dining room overlooking the broad expanse of the Pacific ocean is a feature of which few seaside hotels in the world may safely boast of having. Hotel Gearhart is almost at the very edge of the rolling surf and the wide, hard sand beach, free from driftwood and rocks, is ideal for riding or driving, automobilizing, beach strolling and surf bathing.

The fortunate members of the Evening Observer's contest who capture the special prize and are taken on the trip to Gearhart will return to La Grande enthusiastic over the wonderful and beautiful things to see at Gearhart hotel and park.

Gearhart is not only the name of the hotel, but also the park surrounding the hotel. At Gearhart are the best golf links in the west, tennis courts and croquet grounds. Just back of the hotel is the park of 200 acres. Winding trails have been built through the woods, an auditorium erected for the use of conventions and other gatherings and the big dairy ranch is always a source of interest. There are many roads leading back into the woods to the mountains, rivers for boating and fishing and the wide board walk in front of the hotel is illuminated at night. Tillamook head is in full view from the hotel veranda and picnic grounds are numerous.

Gearhart park is a high class resort and has already been selected by more than 200 families of the northwest for their beach home. The many beautiful cottages and bungalows are the scene of many week-end parties in the summer months and during the winter time Portland people often spend weeks at Gearhart. The number of cottage owners at Gearhart Park is increasing each season and since land at Gearhart is held at exceedingly reasonable prices many people are taking advantage of the inducements offered and are building a cottage at the seaside.

At Gearhart Park the members of the contest party will visit more than 100 of the most artistic cottages ever built at a seaside resort, for at Gearhart purchasers have the choice of a lot in the woods, along the fringe of the forest line, in the open meadow overlooking the Pacific ocean.

When the members of the Evening Observer contest party reach Gearhart they will be met at the station by a representative of the hotel and taken for a stage ride through the woods to the hotel. Special accommodations will be provided and the members of the party will be given a tour of the hotel and grounds. After that they will be given the keys of the hotel and every amusement at this beautiful resort, every joy and every comfort will be theirs for the asking.

It may be a stroll along the beach, a dip in the surf, an evening in the natatorium or a journey through the woods. Gearhart's features are many and two days may be well spent at this resort. It will prove a pleasant outing after several days spent in Portland and a trip that persons living inland invariably enjoy.

TEACHERS WILL FAITH IN OLD HIRE SPECIAL TIME MYTH

OREGON TEACHERS PLAN SPECIAL TO N. E. A.

Arrangement Now Under Way Which Will Cost Teachers Dearly.

Portland school teachers are planning to charter a special train to carry them to San Francisco in July, where the National Educational Association will hold its annual convention, says the Portland Telegram. Teachers throughout the state will be invited to join the excursion, and it is estimated that 1,000 will attend the convention from Oregon. The special train will leave July 6, and will arrive in San Francisco in time for the excursionists to do some sightseeing before the convention opens July 10. Headquarters of the Oregon delegation have been reserved in the Palace hotel, where visitors will be received and literature distributed among easterners. An effort will be made to enlist the assistance of the Portland Commercial club in the advertising of Oregon at the convention.

MT. ANGELS' PRIEST RETURNS TO LOURDES SHRINE.

Hopes to Be Cured at the Shrine When Doctors Have Failed.

Portland, Ore., April 19.—(Special)—Belief in miracles has not passed, for Father Alexander Gebmeier, of the order of St. Benedict, Mt. Angel, has just left for France, where he will visit the miraculous shrine of Lourdes, hoping for a cure of tuberculosis. Physicians say the disease has reached a stage where medical science is powerless to aid him.

Father Alexander has great hopes of being restored to health at Lourdes. He is only 26 years of age, and was ordained but recently. He was born in Bavaria and came to Mt. Angel in 1906 to complete his studies in philosophy and theology.
