It is named after the 41st state of the Union. Give the name and location.
48 Montana Pool Hall, southeast corner Depot street and Jefferson avenue.

NUMBER 49.—This is a drug store, not the kind that advertises a liniment of such power that when applied to a dog's tail would cause it to grow out again, and again applied to the spot end, picked up from the dust of the street, would cause a new dog to grow out—but the kind that sells all first-class, dependable goods, standard remedies and sundries. It is the store that has made such a hit with confectionery and kodaks, lines in which it leads. It has been established in this city under the present management but eight months. It has built up a reputation for the prompt and accurate filling of physician's prescriptions. Give the name and location. You can omit one letter from the name and it will still be right.

He is not of the class of veterinarians one of whom, legend says, was called upon to minister to a sick man in the absence of a physician, and frankly told the anxious friends that he could not cure the disease the man had, but that he could give him something to turn it into the "botts" and then he could cure the "botts."
