and Manager.

PROGRAM

"The Man from the East." Sell Great character play. Because he's from the east they think he's a tenderfoot. He shows them in the southwest how really good he is, and he is good.

"Comrades" Eclipse
A story of a great sacrifice, a true incident of the early Napoleon wars.

"Oh, You Clubman." Pathe
This is great. Clubmen, exclubmen and future clubmen should see it. Wives and sweethearts should see it. It is an object lesson for all.

FREDERICK T. GATES, ROCKEFELLER'S BENEVOLENCE AGENT

SCULPTOR WILLIAM COUPER of New York recently has completed this notable portrait bust of Frederick T. Gates, who for nearly eighteen years has served as "business and benevolent representative" for John D. Rockefeller. Mr. Gates is entitled to the title "Rev." before his name. He became a Baptist preacher in 1890 and for eight years was pastor of the Central church, Minneapolis. Then for five years he was corresponding secretary for the American Baptist Educational society, for which society he established the University of Chicago, founded by Mr. Rockefeller. Then the latter took over Mr.
Gates and established him at 26 Broadway, New York, where the Standard Oil people have headquarters. Mr. Gates is president, manager or director of several railway, industrial, educational and charitable organizations founded by his employer. His post as chairman of the general educational board, with many Rockefeller millions to expend, is his most important function.

made and popularized amateur photography. They have always lead in improvements, in new ideas. But what is of equal importance is the careful workmanship and the superb lens and shutter equipment. Yet they are not expensive—$5 up.
