Nothing for the Hair So Good as Parisian Sage!

The Newlin Drug company sell it on money back plan, so you take no risk. "I can truthfully say that Parisian Sage is the best dandruff cure I have ever used, and can cheerfully recommend it for dandruff or falling hair. It is an elegant hair dressing."—Mrs. J. W. Smith, 408 East Main St., Durham, N. C., 1910.

"Parisian Sage is the best best hair tonic and scalp cleaner I have ever used. It also promotes the growth of hair and makes it soft and glossy."—Mrs. George E. Alexander, 222 N. Wayne St., St. Mary's, Ohio, 1910.

"My hair was falling out badly; I used one bottle of Parisian Sage which gave great relief to the falling hair and itching scalp and the second bottle cured it entirely. I use it once in a while to keep my hair in good health."—Minnie J. Eisenhard, 1512 Gordon St., Allentown, Pa., 1910.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by the Newlin Drug company and druggists everywhere, to cure dandruff, stop falling hair, itching scalp and make the hair grow abundantly, or money back. Large bottle 50 cents. Girl with auburn hair on every bottle. A 29 M 10.

THE GOLDEN RULE CO.

Unappreciative.
"Carlyle was a great thinker. You can't turn to a single page without finding some gem of thought. Here, for instance, he says that there is strength in cheerfulness."
"So there is in cheese."—Exchange.

Sydney Smith's Wit.
As Lord Brougham one day rode by in his carriage, on the panel of which was a large B, Sydney Smith is said to have remarked, "There goes a carriage with a B outside and a wasp within."

Dear Denial.
"I have heard the late Archbishop Ryan tell of two plump gourmets who were discussing during Lent their favorite fast dishes," said a Philadelphian.
"Trout," said the first, with a sigh, "has gone up, thanks to the high cost of living and the Lenten demand."
"Yes," said the other. "Isn't it terrible? Oysters, terrapin, teal duck, wine, caviar—everything is dearer. Indeed, I often wonder these days where one is to get the money to fast with."
