SINGER GIVEN APPLAUSE.

Popular Song Makes Hit at Isis Theatre Yesterday.

"Those Songs My Mother Used to Sing" is the title of a song which brought vociferous applause at the Isis last night when C. P. Ferrin sang the beautiful ballad to a packed house. The song is so catching and the singing was so perfect that there were cries for more at the conclusion of each song. For Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the Isis has a special song hit and Mr. Ferrin and Miss Garrick—two of the tip top singers of the city—will be heard handling this fine number. Both these people are popular with everyone. Mr. Ferrin has long been a skilled singer and Miss Garrick is fast winning wide popularity for her attractive voice. During this entire week the Isis will have specially strong musical numbers. Mr. King the man who hammers the ivories like only an artist can, also has something on the slate for the Isis customers. Between Mr. King the kingpin piano player, and the two soloists, the Isis stands well out in the fore rank of Eastern Oregon show houses.
