No one thing gives a young man more prestige among business men than a bank account.
The fact that a man has money in the bank, betokens habits of thrift and frugality.
It is an index to a young man's character.
Nothing so begets a feeling of confidence and self-reliance, as a healthy, growing bank account.
To those who have not yet established themselves, we invite a careful consideration of our institution. Our strength, and our high position in the community, are unquestioned.
