LOCALS

Delicious strawberries will be served in the future at the Silverthorne fountain. 5-2-3t

Call Main 4 for quick messenger service. The office is operated by H. Kistler and he attends to business. Call him and get results.

Get acquainted with our goods, our methods and our prices, and you'll readily see why our business grows. Let us supply your next drug need. The Newlin Drug company.

Shoes less than one half their regular price—not an old style lot but practically all new and reasonable goods. They are remnants and odd pairs from our spring line. Look them over before they are picked over. The Golden Rule company.

Fresh strawberries will be regularly served at the Silverthorne fountain in the future. 5-2-3t

Our silk sale is being very freely patronized. 50c per yard is almost a ridiculous low price for the line of goods we are showing. Rajas, Sulbines, Foulards, Mulls, etc., but we must reduce our stock. The Golden Rule company.

Our stock of prescription drugs is so complete that it's seldom a customer has to wait for us to procure an ingredient. Prescription filling is a specialty with us. The Newlin Drug company.

The election of officers for Rescue Hose companies Nos. 1 and 2, held last evening, resulted in the following selections: P. A. Foley, for man; L. L. Snodgrass, first assistant foreman; Charles Murchison, second assistant foreman; Hugh McCall, president; Nat Zweifel, vice president; Cam Caylor, secretary; George Weisberger, treasurer and Frank Brown, historian.

As an indication of th interest taken in the excursion to Elgin next Sunday, D. C. Brichoux, proprietor of the Savoy hotel, has reserved 10 tickets for his hotel. The train leaves at 1 o'clock making a very convenient arrangement. Mr. Brichoux heads the list of reservations so far, though there are other large batches of tickets ordered.

Raymond A. Cook, an O-W fireman here and Miss Mabel Lambert of Fruitdale were married last evening by Justice of the Peace Williams and were guests of honor at the banquet last evening given by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engine-men.

The management of the Savoy hotel announces it will give a summer rate. Finest rooms in the city after May 1. Excellent service always. 5-412t

FIREMEN, ATTENTION.

There will be a meeting of Rescue Hose company tonight at 7:30 for the purpose of electing two delegates to go to Portland.

Hugh McCall, President.

PERSONALS.

A. E. Eaton, the Union capitalist, is in La Grande today transacting business matters.

George M. Andrews of Boise is at the Foley this afternoon while transacting business here.

Fred Meyers, La Grande's clever left fielder, returned today from Starkey prairie where he went with some horses.

C. H. Green of Spokane, E. B. Reed of Salt Lake, W. D. Vande Vanter of Seattle were Foley hotel guests this morning.

A small crowd last evening enjoyed the baseball game at the Elks hall. Conflicting attractions was responsible for the shortage in attendance.

The La Grande track team leaves tomorrow morning for Ontario to enter the annual Eastern Oregon meet there Saturday.

H. J. O'Neill, the O-W freight man with headquarters at Portland stopped at the Foley last night while transacting business here.

Mrs. Jess Paul went to Huntington this morning where her sister, Mrs. Will Wallace, is ill. After a visit at the gateway city she returns to Baker to visit friends briefly.

Willie Pearce reached home this morning from Chicago where he has spent several months perfecting himself in engraving. While in Chicago he attended a school of much excellence in that line of work and comes back well prepared in his profession. He has been gone about four months.

Martin & Bradley, the plumbers, have just completed a piece of work for the Russell meat market which gives the refrigerator sewer connections without direct connections. The connection is made with a pan of water in the basement, and absolutely prevents sewer gas from reaching the refrigerator. Considerable other work was done to the plumbing of the meat shop.

Star Theatre Has Sweet Singers.

One of the popular attractions at the Star theatre at every performance is Miss Mildred Stephenson, vocalist and pianist. Aside from her remarkable ability and splendid voice she has many personal friends who attend regularly when Miss Mildred has a new song or a new piano selection. She is very popular with the young people of La Grande and in her profession she ranks very high.

A Wedding Hoax.

There have been many foolish hoaxes since the days of Theodore Hook, but few so cruel as one mentioned by Bram Stoker in his book, "Famous Impostors." A young couple were about to be married in Birmingham when those officiating were startled by the delivery of a telegram from London with the message: "Stop marriage at once. His wife and children have arrived in London and will come on to Birmingham." The bride fainted, and the bridegroom was frantically perturbed at thus summarily being provided with a wife and family. But it was useless—the unhappy man had to make the best of his way through an exasperated crowd, full of sympathy for the wronged girl. Inquiry, however, showed her friends that the whole thing was a hoax—possibly worked by some revengeful rival of the man whose happiness had been so unexpectedly deferred.

The Proof.

"If your wife is such a terribly good cook why don't you eat more dinners at home?"
"Gee! How would I know how good she could cook if I didn't eat somewhere else?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Matinee Idol.

"He's a stickler for realism."
"Yes, but he carries it to excess. In the second scene he is supposed to be severely wounded, and he has a surgeon issue bandages between the acts."—Pittsburg Post.

Large Order.

"Your own baby, if you have one, advertised the enterprising photographer. "Can be enlarged, tinted and framed for $0.75 a dozen."—Blue Bull.

If you would abolish avarice you must abolish the parent of it, luxury.—Cicero.

Things Are Changed Now.

The Fourth of July, the day of our arrival at Albany, was the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, and on our arrival we were told that great preparations were making for its celebration.

Our landlord, as soon as he found out who we were, immediately came to us to request that we would excuse the confused state in which his house was, as this was the anniversary day of "American Independence," or, as some indeed more properly call it, "American repentance." We were all of us not a little surprised at this address, and from such a person. In instances, however, are not wanting of people openly declaring that they have never enjoyed so much quiet and happiness in their own homes since the Revolution as they did when the states were the colonies of Great Britain. Among the planters of Virginia I have heard language of this sort more than once.—From "Travels Through the States of North America," by Isaac Weld, Jr., 1796.

Anecdotes of Richter.

Dr. Richter will forgive us, we are sure, for telling two rehearsal stories about him. Madam X was singing at a rehearsal and was decidedly out of tune. Dr. Richter stood it as long as he could, then turned to her. "Madam," he said, "will you kindly give the orchestra your A?"

At another rehearsal one of the instrumentalists made a mistake. "No," said Dr. Richter; "it goes so (humming)—rum-tum-tarum!" The same player made another mistake. "No, no—rum-tum-tarum!" At the third mistake Dr. Richter momentarily lost patience and cried, "Why do you make so many mistakes, Mr.—?" Then quickly recovering his habitual good humor, "Ah, I know why it is—you like to hear me sing!"—Manchester Guardian.
