team Sunday aroused considerable baseball enthusiasm among the fans which was manifested at the meeting held Wednesday night for the purpose of making plans. A committee consisting of C. T. McDaniel, J. H. Maxwell and F. H. Brownie, will sell sufficient stock in the association to fence the grounds. A guarantee fund will be raised to insure the running expenses of the team.—Wallowa Sun.

Found the Word.
The late Thomas Lowry of Minneapolis was a great wit and a great story teller as well as a great financier. He needed $1,000,000 one time for one of his railroad enterprises, and he went to New York to get it. On the morning of his arrival a friend met him at the hotel and asked, "What are you doing, Tom?"
"I am going downtown to get $1,000,000."
"Can you do it?"
"My boy," said Lowry impressively, "in the bright lexicon of youth there is no such word as fail."
That night Lowry came back to his hotel after a hard day. The same friend met him. "Did you get the million?" he asked.
"No," replied Lowry. "I didn't. I opened that bright lexicon of youth, and the word was in it."—Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

PITCHER COOMBS HAS ONE PECULIAR HOBBY.

Jack Coombs, the steel armed pitcher of the Philadelphia Athletics, has one hobby—a collection of pipes. No matter where he travels, he tours the lanes, small streets and the curiosity shops. He is always in hunt of another trophy for his smoking emporium.
He has every pipe, here and farther, but he confesses that the sweetest one of the lot is an old corn cob furnace that he whitts after a battle on the diamond. Coombs is a quiet fellow, but any one desiring to open up a conversation with the mighty man from Maine only has to talk "pipes" and he is sure to be entertained by the peerless pitcher.

and Mrs. George Palmer entertained the evening Kaffee Klatch at the home of the former, last evening. The honors of the evening were won by Mrs. Franc Wilhelm and Adolph Newlin. This was the second evening meeting of that club since Lent.

Congratulations were extended on Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. William Hallgarth, who celebrated their golden wedding. Mr. Hallgarth is in his 75th year and still lives in the house where he was born. The happy couple have had five sons and two daughters, and there are four sons and two daughters still living. Three of the sons are doing well in America. There is only one grandchild. We are sure our readers wish the aged couple many future years of happiness.—Mumby, England, paper.

Next week sees the commencement of commencement exercises and social functions. The juniors early in the week, become hosts and hostesses to senior class and a banquet will follow a short program in the auditorium. All the details are not announced—some of the features are to be withheld as surprises to the guests. Enough is known to assure the graduating class that their next ups are arranging something clever. One of the popular students is to act as toast master at the banquet, to be served in the gymnasium, and the muscle-developing section of the building will be appropriately clothed in the colors of the two classes.

Trouble Brewing in East.

Manila, May 6.—Expecting that the United States will eventually occupy Mexico and thus more seriously strain the American-Japanese relations—the Filipino revolutionary junta with headquarters at Hong Kong is planning to take advantage of any such development to renew activities in the Philippines.

It is reported the Japanese are encouraging them. Orders were given today to disarm the Moros in the Lanao district as it is feared the junta's activities has prepared them for serious trouble.
