MINISTERS ARE REBUKED

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE AT S. MEETING REPORTS.

Next Meeting Will Be Held at Cove-Report in Full.

The resolutions committee appointed at the semi-annual convention of the Union county Sunday school association, has made its report. The convention meets at Cove next time, when the annual election of officers will be held. The resolutions committee's report follows:

We, as committee on resolutions of the Union county Sunday school convention, held at Alicel, Oregon, May 2 and 3, 1911, report the following:

First, That we extend our heartfelt thanks to the officers of the convention for the able program which they have prepared and so successfully carried out.

Second, That we are extremely grateful to Rev. Chas. A. Phipps for his presence and able addresses he has given us, and also for the inspiration we have received from his talks.

Third, That we, as delegates and representatives of the various schools of Union county extend our thanks to the people of Alicel and community for their cordial welcome and their royal entertainment they have given us, and assure you we shall hold you in remembrance as a people who are wide awake and always willing to help along the cause of the Kingdom.

Fourth, That we advise the Sunday school people generally, to make a special effort this year to acquaint themselves with the temperance work so that they may be able to do more effective work for the cause of temperance in the future.

Fifth, That we deplore the fact that out of the number of minister of the gospel in the Grande Ronde valley only 30 per cent of them were present at this convention; but we rejoice in the fact that all the Sunday schools in Union county, with the exception of one, were represented in this convention; and we also rejoice for the general spirit and interest shown throughout the entire session.

Respectfully submitted by MRS. C. E. DAVIS, MRS. T. OLIVER, W. E. THOMPSON, Committee.

Miller's Message No. 6 To the Children of La Grande

This is probably the first real estate advertisement ever written exclusively for CHILDREN, but we appeal to you, to urge your PAPA and MAMA to buy a lot for YOU. While you are attending Grammar School, your expenses are not as high as they will be when you enter High School and the University. Your Papa can now spare the few dollars required to buy some of that nice property in RIVERSIDE ADDITION, and when you are ready to go to High School or College, the sale of this property that is now so easily paid for will provide for your education in the higher branches.

So CHILDREN, urge your PAPA and MAMA to make this provision for your future. Ask them to see Mr. Miller's office at 1107 Adams avenue, or to phone Main 1.
