In preparation for the annual convention of the Eastern division of the Oregon State Teachers' association County Superintendent Frank K. Welles, of Umatilla county, as a member of the board of directors, will leave next week for Baker where he will attend the meeting of the board, says the Pendleton Live Wire.

From Superintendent J. A. Churchill, of the Baker schools, who is also president of the Oregon Teachers' association, Superintendent Welles received notification today of the approaching school board meeting.

The annual convention will be held during Thanksgiving week and will attract practically all of the teachers in this section of Oregon. It is expected that the board of directors at the meeting next week will be able to provide an elaborate and appropriate program.

CLARK MAY YET BE HEARD

SHOULD CONGRESS ADJOURN EARLY HE WILL COME.

Possible that Pro Rata Money Will Be Refunded if He Falls.

Speaker of the House Champ Clark may yet appear on a lecture platform in La Grande as a part of the year's lyceum numbers according to information received by the central bureau. The proposition hinges entirely on the adjournment of the special session on congress, and if that august body decides to shorten its special session, the democratic leader of the lower house will be heard in La Grande. He was scheduled to appear during the spring but the extra session made it necessary for him to cancel, or at least to postpone the number. Further word will be heard from the central bureau soon.

In the event that Mr. Clark does not come, Prof. Stout may refund the money pro rata for Mr. Clark's number as a feature on the program of attractions.

Baker Returns Home.

Tracey Baker, who recently signed a contract to finish the season with the Boston Americans, reached Pendleton this morning from Seattle, where he has been attending the University of Washington, and will remain here to visit his parents until Monday, when he will leave for Boston. As he is now under contract with organized baseball he is barred from playing with the Buckaroos Sunday unless the other teams of the league give their permission. Inasmuch as there is a strong desire on the part of the local fans to see Baker in action once again before he enters big company, Manager Nelson thinks the managers of the other teams will consent to his appearance in a Pendleton uniform.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Let this sink in deep.
Then come to our office or call us up on the phone and request us to show you this property.

If you have made investments in real estate, avail yourself of this opportunity to make comparisons.
The terms are such that no sacrifice will have to be made in order to meet them.
If this addition was located near a town with a less bright future before it than La Grande, it would still be an excellent investment, and with the future La Grande has before it, the increase in the value of these lots will be phenomenal.
