HOT HOUSE IS NEEDED

COMMERCIAL CLUB MANAGER COMPUTES THE OUTLAY.
Ten Thousand Go Out of Town Yearly for Hot House Stuff Alone.

Ten thousand dollars are annually leaving La Grande for hot house vegetables and flowers that might as well be kept at home, according to Manager S. M. Slough of the La Grande Commercial club. He bases the estimate on a careful compilation of figures obtained from merchants and other sources. The sum named is very conservative, the figure actually averaging more than that. With these figures at his command, Mr. Slough has written to various cities where he is advised people are looking for opportunities to invest money and has set out the conditions as they exist here. While he has not had time to receive any replies, he has hopes of getting in touch with parties who will take the matter up.
Along this same line Mr. Slough has written letters to possible investors regarding the establishment of a small sash and door factory here. While in North Powder a few days ago he learned that a mill there is sending a large shipment of odds and ends of lumber and edgings to Oshkosh, Wisconsin, and that there it is glued together and made into furniture, sashes and doors. With a small outlay the same products could be made in La Grande where the supply is more than sufficient and the territory to distribute the finished product in could be measured with a 50-mile radius and then be profitable to all concerned.
Pretty much the same thing is true of the cabbage crop. The heads are sent to California from La Grande and Union county—cabbage that ranks with the best—and comes back as kraut. The absurdity of the thing is too big to be argued and a small investment would handle the output very nicely. With these three important fields for investment Mr. Slough hopes to be able to bring capital here to open up these important fields at once.

ENTERPRISE JURY CONVICTS

GROUSE MAN CONVICTED OF RAPE AFTER LONG TRIAL.

Character of Woman Attacked by 11th-Hour Witnesses.

Enterprise, May 19.—(Special)—Robert Friedles, a resident of Grouse, North Wallowa county, was convicted last evening of the crime of rape, the jury having been out for a considerable length of time. The case was extremely hard fought and though the defense turned in an 11th hour surprise on the state, the jury found for the state. The defendant's counsel brought many witnesses to Enterprise from Grouse to attack the character of the woman involved and with no possible chance to put on contradictory evidence because witnesses were 80 miles away, the state depended entirely on breaking down evidence in cross examinations. In this Colonel Ivanhoe was successful.
