The class this year includes 21, as large a class as usually graduates from the institution. The class roll is: Hallie Irene Adler, George William Broadbridge, George H. Currey, Jr., Rev. Benson Currey, Eugene N. Good, Eva May Greene, Charles Olaf Grout, Leah May Hough, James Hugh Irwin, Frederick J. Lottes, Calista Love, Bertha May Neill, Gladys E. Oesterling, Bonnie Lillian Severs, Enid M. Stanchfield, Ethel Frances Sweeney, Jeanette Wheatley, Scott A. Wheatley, Eva Viola Woodruff.

"An Unlucky Party" was the title given to an afternoon entertainment at the home of Mrs. E. E. Kiddle at Island City on Friday, May 19th. The hostesses were Mrs. E. E. Kiddle, Mrs. C. H. Bidwell, and Mrs. A. R. Hunter. The guests were the members of the Neighborhood club who consider themselves anything but unlucky to have been honored by the invitation for every charm known to the art was used to ward off the unlucky spell. Even Jupiter Pluvius had a sunny smile and let not a rain drop fall during the occasion.

A score of autos gathered up the guests in La Grande, then after being received by the hostesses the guests were shown upstairs when to their dismay at the approach of the stairs, was an open ladder, with a plank and warning them that "To pass under a ladder brings bad luck." To avoid this, however, each lady would whistle as she passed under and this she did with the earnestness of the small boy who whistles as he passes through a dark wood.

In the stairway they had a pass a landing which cast another evil spell unless they shook hands. Over the mirrors were placards warning the guests that if two should look in the mirror at the same time they should smile at each other.

As they went down stairs they found the same unlucky spells to be averted everywhere, and finally each lady was called upon to relate an unlucky incident in her life. The story told by Mrs. F. W. Jackson, "A Study in Black and White," was voted to be the best and Mrs. Jackson was presented with a beautiful brooch, a four leafed clover and a horseshoe combined.

The pleasure of the afternoon was very much added to by a vocal solo by Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn and another by Mrs. Myrton Kiddle.

Mrs. Kiddle's beautiful and commodious new home was decorated with yellow iris and white carnations and narcissus carrying out the club colors, yellow and white.

In the dining room again the scheme was carried out both in the decorations and in the refreshments.

Mrs. Fred Kiddle and Mrs. Foster poured coffee, while Mrs. Myrton Kiddle and the Misses Atherton, Foster, Hunter and Leta Kiddle served the most dainty refreshments.

In bidding adieu the guests departed through a different door from the one through which they were received, over which was suspended a horseshoe, portending a more lucky future.

Over three hundreds yards of white silk mull have been used in preparing the gowns to be worn by the drill team of the Hope chapter of the Eastern Star at the grand lodge in Portland early in June. The 24 members will be gowned similarly and the expense of fitting out these gowns will total more than $1,000. All the expense is born by the members of the team, as is also the trip expense to Portland.

"Few realize what a prominent big thing this drill team is nor do they appreciate the honor," said Grand Worthy Matron Mrs. Rinehart this morning. "The team will put on the work at Portland during the grand lodge and its reputation will be spread over the entire state. Hundreds will be in attendance and of all the lodges in the state, La Grande has been picked to do this work. In order that they may do it commendable and with credit to the city, the members and the instructor, Mrs. Fred G. Schilke are putting on two or three weekly drills on a piece of floral work that they knew fairly well before this matter came up. The members sacrifice everything to do this well and it will be more of a boost for La Grande than anything that has happened in a long time." The public is of course non-consentant of the "turns" done by the team but Eastern Star members say that the grand lodge will see something that has never been equalled before. The drill was originated by Mrs. Schilke.

Mrs. William Ramsey was the guest of honor this week at a reception given in her honor by the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. A. T. Hill. The Hill home was decorated with tulips and narcissus and presented a very delightful and pleasing appearance. Light refreshments were served, too. Mrs. Ramsey for long a resident and prominent church worker of this city, leaves Tuesday for Portland where she and her husband, Attorney Ramsey, will make their future home. The event was largely attended.

The Misses Pearl and Ruby Huff were hostesses last evening at a card party at the home of their parents, Seventh and L streets, and about 30 guests were present. The evening was spent playing various games of cards and toothsome refreshments climaxed an evening of pleasure to every one of the guests. Music and recitations were also a part of the evening's entertainment. Several very excellent numbers were rendered. Among the guests present were several from out of town, including Imber and Alice points.

A very delightful surprise was tendered the members of the Eastern Star floral drill team last Monday evening at the conclusion of the rehearsals when Miss Wilma Rinehart, Miss Stella Bloch and Miss Thel McKennon were hostesses to the other members of the team and instructors at a banquet served at the lodge room. The drill team had not been apprised of the treat and when the doors were swung open on the well-laden dinner table the surprise was genuine and greatly appreciated. The dinner proved a delightful break to the monotony of hard drilling.

The annual meeting of the Neighborhood club was held on Tuesday afternoon and a most interesting business meeting was held. Plans were laid for the next year's work. Annual reports were given, and new officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. J. D. Stout; vice president, Mrs. Albert Hunter; secretary, Mrs. Delle Green; treasurer, Mrs. J. S. Williamson. Mrs. J. K. Wright as retiring president, was lected as the new director of the club.

The Neighborhood club ladies are very enthusiastic over the chautauqua assembly and will assist in trying to make it a permanent institution.

The annual stag banquet given by the B. M. A. was held last evening at the club rooms. A feed with more than ordinary frills and toothsome had been arranged by a delegation of club boys and a few invited guests were present to participate in the spread. The club is nearing the end of its year's work, specializing on three lines literary, musical and physical, and the banquet last evening was a capping climax to the year's several spreads. The guests included "Heinie" Heidenreich and Eugene Good.

The Massabees annual ball last Wednesday evening was a big success and every guest enjoyed himself immensely. The ladies of the order outdid themselves to make the event a delightful one and succeeded splendidly.

Election of officers of the Lyle Tuesday Musicales takes place next Tuesday and all members are urged to be present, as the meeting will be of considerable importance.

The Bridge club was entertained this week by Mrs. Jay Van Buren. Mrs. Fred Kiddle of Island City won the honors.

Mrs. Nell Grimmitt entertained very informally a few friends Thursday evening at the Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Holmes residence on Fourth.

Mrs. Oscar Jackson entertained the La Jaunesse club at its regular meeting this week. Refreshments closed the evening's sewing.

Mrs. Adolph Newlin was host to the afternoon section of the Kaitie Klatch this week.

WHEN A MAN BUYS CLOTHES

He goes to the store in which he has the greatest confidence. He does not judge stores by what they claim to do, but what they DO do. He goes to the store that he has learned always gives all or more than they promise. While some stores are always claiming to give unheard of values, it is quite often the case that some other store, not claiming so much, is really giving BETTER values. While we are firm believers in advertising, we know that men judge us mostly BY WHAT WE DO and not by what we say, hence we depend upon REAL GENUINE VALUE GIVING to get us customers and KEEP them. We want YOU.
