Canada Observes the Day.
 Toronto, Ont., May 24.—The memory of Queen Victoria was honored through Canada today by means of the national holiday that is the only, rival of Dominion day. Dispatches from all the principal cities and towns from Halifax to Vancouver indicate a general observance of the day. Everywhere the holiday was made an occasion for parades, military reviews, patriotic exercises and sporting and athletic contests. The schools observed a holiday and the courts and public offices and many places of business remained closed for the day.

International Regatta in Belgium.
 Brussels, May 24.—The big international regatta to be held at Terdonck tomorrow has attracted a swath of oarsmen from Germany, England, Holland, France and other countries. The event in which most interest is manifested is the match between the crew of Jesus college, Cambridge and a picked crew representing the leading rowing clubs of Belgium. The race will be rowed over a straight away course of 2,111 meters.

Railway Claim Agents.
 Montreal, May 24.—The association of Railway Claim Agents assembled in annual session today in Montreal, the meeting being the first that the association has held outside the United States. The object of the meeting is to exchange views regarding the best methods of settling claims against the railroads and to consider laws now in force and listen to and discuss papers that will be presented upon subjects of interest to members. C. W. Egan, of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, is presiding over the gathering, which will continue in session three days.

Dissolution Notice.
 The firm of Martin & Bradley, plumbers, is dissolved this 22nd day of May, 1911, by mutual consent. All accounts due the firm will be collected by J. E. Bradley, who will continue the business. He will pay all outstanding obligations of the firm.

Former Police Chief on Trial.
 Seattle, May 24.—The case of Chas. W. Wappenstein, former chief of police of Seattle, against whom several grand jury indictments were returned as a result of the recent investigation of municipal affairs, was called in court today for trial. The indictment on which Wappenstein is to be tried first charges him with accepting a bribe as protection for running a gambling house.

Amateur Championship Tourney.
 New York, May 24.—Play in the 13th annual amateur championship tournament of the Metropolitan Golf association began on the links of the Garden City Golf club today and will continue through the remainder of the week.
