

Thelsis THEATRE

THE THEATRE OF QUALITY.
Bert M. Sherwood, Proprietor and Manager.

"The Camorants" Eclipse
Japanese fishing with birds. Showing details of an important and almost unknown foreign industry. One of the most wonderful pictures ever produced.

"The Cattle Rustlers" Pathe
A stirring western drama. One that thrills you.

"The Troublesome Secretaries" Vitagraph
It's a Vitagraph comedy. It is hard to describe this comedy without laughing. You will agree with us when you see it.

"Dr. Charcot on his south pole Expedition" Urban Highly educational and interesting. Actual work being done in Antarctic discovery.
Everybody's Favorite Song,
"Where the Silvery Colorado Winds Its Way," sung by Miss Garrick Matinees
Mr. D. L. Evening

PERSONALS

Mrs. S. F. Richardson and daughter left last evening for Idaho points where they will spend the summer months with relatives.

A party of young people left last evening to be gone until after the rose festival. The party included Miss Runa Bacon, Miss Ethel Wright and Miss Constance Hall, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. K. Hall. Miss Constance will be a guest with Mrs. J. M. Berry at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dennis and son, Jack are guests with friends in Wallowa today.

Conductor J. B. Smith and two daughters were over from Pendleton today, decorating the grave of the wife and mother who died a few years ago in this city.

E. L. Ritter, plant superintendent for the Western Union at Seattle, was in the city last evening visiting his brother, H. J. Ritter. He took his departure this morning.

Several of La Grande's teachers left last evening for the summer vacations. Among them were Miss Lottie Wall who goes to Wisconsin after visiting at Spokane, Miss Mildred Cook who will visit in Portland, Prof. Ferdinand Neubauer who goes to Eugene, Prof. F. D. Caruth, who has been a member of the high school faculty, prominent in athletics and a member of the La Grande band, left this morning for Pendleton.

AT THE ISIS.

Attention! La Grande Fishermen! If you want to know how to catch fish by a new kind of bait and tackle just go to the Isis theatre tonight Wednesday and Thursday.

We don't think it possible that the style of fishing depicted will become popular in Oregon. There are many things and conditions against its adoption in this state but it is the most interesting film of its description ever published. It has been secured at enormous cost and the viewing of it will be appreciated by everybody who patronize the popular house while it is being shown. There is also a Vitagraph comedy which is a side splitter. It's a Vitagraph and that means a great deal when it comes to comedy.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

THERE is only one person who is concerned in seeing that you get what's coming to you, and that's yourself.

When one's finances are short, time seems short, too—the time the bank extends.

A visit to the dentist is painful enough without his making it necessary for you to visit the bank as well.

The children of a maiden lady are everything that heart could desire, including being nonexistent.

Some people are no more capable of forgetting their injuries than they are of paying their debts.

The most generous people are apt to be those who give freely of other people's goods.

The facility with which some people keep out of trouble is equaled only by their ability to get you in.

The reason that everybody is giving advice so freely is because it is a perishable commodity and would spoil if not disposed of.

It is easy enough to attend to one's own business, but it isn't always so profitable.

An angelic disposition isn't proof against an overdue plumber and an underdone laundry job.

Time to Get Acquainted.

"Why did the ladies' whist club break up?"
"Its demise became a necessity."
"As how?"
"The ladies discovered that they got each other's husband and children dreadfully mixed up, they saw them so seldom."

Preferred Company.
To dodge the lights and glare of bands into a quiet way he turned.
A robber said, "Hold up your hands."
Then for the maddening crowd he yearned.

Unfounded Rumor.
"Great baby that one of mine, old man."
"What is he like?"
"The picture of his dad."
"Poor child! Doesn't his mother feel bad about it? I heard the baby was pretty."

The Difference.
"She is clever."
"Why?"
"She made such a fool of him."
"But not as clever as the other?"
"Why?"
"She kept him from being a fool."

Evident.
"She is quite young."
"Think so?"
"I know it. She is a lot younger than the other women of her age."
