IVANHOE SPEAKS TO SOLDIERS

SLIGHT CHANGE MADE IN PROGRAM AT THE CHURCH.

City Observes Memorial Day With Fitting Spirit and Attention.

With stores closed this afternoon, public offices barred all day, citizens devoting special attention to beautifying the graves of their friends and the most sacred of all the rites bestowed upon dead comrades by members of Oliver P. Morton Post G. A. R. La Grande paid tribute to its dead in a most auspicious manner today. The decoration day services proper hinge about the G. A. R. services.

Slight changes were made in the order of the day for memorial services by G. A. R. members and their friends today when Attorney C. E. Cochran was excused from delivering the memorial address to the old veterans this afternoon and District Attorney F. S. Ivanhoe was substituted. Because Mr. Cochran was called away on business, the change was made necessary.

The corrected program being carried out at the Christian church this afternoon is:

Song—Central Church of Christ choir.

Prayer—by the post chaplain.

G. A. R. exercises.

Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg—By Rev. J. W. Oliver.

Vocal solo, selected—Mrs. O. E. Silverthorne.

Recitation—"Arathusia's Torment"—Miss Naomi Kirtley.

Vocal solo, selected—Miss Alladene Little.

Recitation—"Heroines of the War"—Master Earl Nutter.

Piano solo, selected—Miss Lela Wilson.

Recitation—"The Rank and File"—Master George Ferguson.

Vocal solo, selected—Mr. C. P. Ferrin.

Recitation—"Sweet Home"—Miss

Leona Newlin.
Quartet from Presbyterian church choir.

Recitation—"The Roll Call" Miss Mary Kaster.
Vocal solo, selected—Mrs. J. F. Corbett.

Piano and violin duet, Miss Mary Fitzgerald and Master Joseph Corbett.

Recitation—Maude Leadsworth.
Vocal solo, selected—Mrs. T. J. Scroggins.

Song—Central Church of Christ choir.
Tribute to the Unknown Dead—By the W. R. C.

Song—"America"—By the audience.
Benediction.
During the morning the graves of dead heroes were strewn with flowers and returning about noon the old soldiers were banqueted at the headquarters of the corps.

Procrastination.
I sit and idly contemplate
The things I ought to do
There are so many on the slate
I fear I'll skip a few
Where could sufficient time be found
On each one to attend
I wonder as I sit around
And watch the smoke ascend.

I ought to mend the garden gate
That wobbles in the breeze.
Likewise before it is too late
I ought to trim the trees
I ought to sew the union patch,
I ought to set a hen
Instead of that I strike a match
And light my pipe again.

So many little tasks appear
That time and effort takes
That I could spend about a year
And no impression make
And some of them I should attack
Before they get too ripe,
But once again I fly the track
And fill my ancient pipe.

The time is ripe to clean the flues.
The stove must soon be got
I really ought to shine my shoes
And some new neckwear get.
So many duties on the string
That hourly multiply,
And yet I hardly do a thing
But watch the days go by.

Dynamiter Surrenders.
San Francisco, May 30.—Charles E. Prickard, at whose home in Oakland yesterday infernal machines fatally injured two deputy sheriffs when they attempted to enter his house to evict him, surrendered here today. He said the bombs were laid for robbers.

Prickard said he had placed the dynamite trap in the house for burglars. He said some one had broken into his home a short time ago and took a valuable diamond ring. This incident so enraged him that he arranged the burglar alarm by fixing a revolver to fire into a train of powder leading to a ten pound can of black powder. Prickard, however did not explain to the satisfaction of the officers the

EXCURSION TO BAKER MAYBE

EIGHTY FANS MUST BE SECURED FOR THE TRIP.

Public Expression of Pleasure in the Matter Being Solicited.

Arrangements for running an excursion to Baker next Sunday when La Grande meets Baker are being considered but on account of the shortage of cars it is not definitely decided yet. Eighty people at $2.00 each for fare are the requirements for this occasion and the management of the ball team is anxious to accommodate the fans if that number wish to go. Some expression from the public will be gained before the train will be definitely ordered.

HARLAN ANGERS JUSTICES.

Washington, May 30.—As a result of a sarcastic opinion expressed by Justice Harlan in the two big trust cases, it is said relations between him and the other members of the supreme court are strained. It is said several stormy scenes were enacted in the private chambers of the court when the trust cases were under consideration. Justice Harlan's dissenting opinion was as vigorous as his one in the Standard decision. He strongly resented the writing in of the "rule of reason" and its application to the decision in the American Tobacco case.

Prickard, however did not explain to the satisfaction of the officers the reason for the presence of four bombs which he admitted having made. He said he was sorry that the officers were injured yesterday.

J. C. MARTIN PASSES

FAMILY AT BEDSIDE OF PIONEER ILLINOIS MAN.

Funeral Will Be Held Tomorrow From Home of C. G. Cummings.

J. C. Martin passed away at 10 o'clock last evening at Hot Lake where he was taken with hope of benefitting his health. His wife and daughter, Mrs. C. G. Cummings, were at his bedside when he passed away. Mr. Martin was born in Illinois in 1850 where he had lived all his life.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Cummings corner of Ninth and O streets. Dr. Seemann will be the officiating clergyman.

Neck-Twisting Glasses

Wearers of the old style far-and-near glasses, made by gluing one piece to the foot of another, MAKE MUCH COMPLAINT of the neck-jerking and neck-twisting to look over and under the line that crosses the lens. Wearers of the newest glass, the
