THEN AND NOW.

The outbreak of spring runaways in Chicago and other big cities is more acute this year than ever before although the number has been growing larger year by year. One Chicago boy wrote to the postmaster of a town in the Texas Panhandle saying:

Ma's bridge club met at our house last night and this mornin' dad snickered so, all the time he was eatin' his breakfast, he could hardly swaller. Ma was more or less subdued, 'cause she knew dad had caught her with the goods on for once, but, nevertheless. she wasn't so darned subduid that dad felt safe in crowdin' the thing tool far. Dad finally said: "We're havin' guess." And then dad just laned

For this change we have two good songs. At matinees Miss Stephenson will sing an illustrated song entitled, "Maybe I'll Come Back This Afternoon." At the evening performances the very latest song hit, "I Will Love You When the Silver Threads Are Shining Mongst the Gold." She will sing in the spotlight.

Old Friends and New

Winning permanent, lasting friends is the work of time, and this bank numbers among its clients hundreds of banks and business houses with whom it has had close relations for a great part of the twenty-four years of its existence.

Our friends have heiped to make this one of the largest and strongest banks in the West. We have helped in their making, too.

We welcome new friends and will attend to their wants with the same fidelity which has cemented our relations with our older ones.
