FUNERAL SUNDAY, PERHAPS.

Definite Word Has Not Been Received Regarding Stevens Funeral.

Though it is believed that Jasper G. Stevens, who died in Portland yesterday morning, will be buried at Cove Sunday, nothing definite has been announced in this respect. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stevens of this city have been awaiting further word but none has been received.

Jasper G. Stevens passed away suddenly in his home, 783 Irving street, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, heart failure being the cause of demise. Up to last night, save for a slight attack of tonsillitis, which caused him some inconvenience during the last few days, Mr. Stevens was apparently enjoying good health.

OUR EXPECTATIONS.

We take a great deal for granted in this world and expect that everything, as a matter of course, ought to fit into our humors, wishes and wants. It is often only when danger threatens that we awake to the discovery that the guiding reins are held by One whom we had well nigh forgotten in our careless ease.—Mrs. Gatty.

SELF SACRIFICE.

Let us remember that there can be little or no charity without some self sacrifice. Self love is the enemy of benevolence. If there were more self denial there would be more love. Seneca says: "Take two words from the lexicon and there will be perfect concord among men and no more war. These words are mibe and thine." Kindness and generosity to others generally involve some self restraint on our part. You have to put yourself to some inconvenience to direct an inquirer to the street he is looking for or to accommodate him to a seat beside you in the car or in the church. But life is made up of these amenities and acts of courtesy and kindness.—Cardinal Gibbons.

There are people who are so lucky as always to have the other fellow's silk umbrella whenever it rains.

If we never did anything but what is good for us we wouldn't know how to measure up the good.

Superior.

"Pa, they can't move the equator, can they?"
"No, my son; it is fixed."
"How can a woman move her waist line every year?"

Discouraging.

They're fighting out in Turkey, O'er what I do not know. And Mexico is giving A regular three ring show. While Carnegie stands ready To purchase peace, alas, A lot of minor nations Are in the show me class.
