MURDERER NOT YET BOUND. May Be the Murderer of Barbara Holtzman.

Portland, June 10.—Following an all night hunt citizens and officers who formed a posse, are no nearer a clue as to who the murderer of the Hill family is than yesterday when the crime was discovered. Several persons were suspected and two were taken into custody but these easily proved an alibi. Finger prints of the murderer have been secured from the bloody ax, used in the commission of the crime. This is the only clue so far.

The police connect the crime with that of Barbara Holtzman, aged 5, who was murdered and assaulted in Portland two months ago. A general description of the man is the same in both cases.
