INSTITUTE AT ELGIN PROVES SUCCESSFUL

NEWBERG W. C. T. U. WORKER CONDUCTS SERVICES.

Important Meeting at Elgin May Pave Way for Similar Ones.

Mrs. Helen D. Harford of Newberg superintendent of the department of christian citizenship, of the national W. C. T. U., passed through La Grande Monday enroute from Elgin where she and Hattie Wolfe, county president, attended a W. C. T. U. institute Saturday and Sunday.

An afternoon session was held in the M. E. church Saturday. Sunday Mrs. Harford addressed each Sunday school for a few minutes. Mrs. Wolfe invited the children of the city to a picnic Monday, which was attended by about 40, who indulged in the usual picnic sports.

Sunday afternoon Mrs. Harford prepared the way for a permanent organization of the L. T. L., teaching mottos, songs and salutes, which the boys and girls were able to give with lusty voices on Monday.

The five cent lunches brought by the children proved ample for hungry folks and also to be a very satisfactory method of managing a picnic dinner. The girls would doubtless say that not the least of the fun was "playing school" and the impromptu "exhibition" in which the ladies present assisted by old time songs and recitations.

Of course the crowning event of the institute was the address on "Christian Citizenship" by Mrs. Harford on Sunday evening, at the union meeting. Mrs. Laura Boyd, county president, hopes to have one of these institutes in each town in the county in the summer and early fall.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

A GIRL with a small white hand is inordinately fond of calling attention to her new rings and bracelets.

Being sarcastic may be satisfying at the time, but subsequent payments are apt to be heavy.

A cheery smile is received by the professional grouch as an indelicate insult.

Some men succeed in life because their wives won't stand for any sort of failure.

Some men have so little practice in paying bills that they can't do it well.

Sometimes preparing for hard times makes times hard.

The boy who likes to go fishing generally has a dad who thinks the garden should be hoed.

Nobody forgives an injury so long as he feels any injury.

It isn't hard to wear old clothes when better ones are waiting to be donned.

Afraid.
"Sam, you are smoking too much."
"Am I?"
"Yes, you are."
"Please don't tell my wife."
"Why?"
"Because she will begin to smoke up at once."
