S. A. Culp was registered at the Foley last evening from Portland.

H. S. Sommer was over from Elgin last evening and stayed at the Savoy.

W. J. Hess and wife of North Yakima stopped at the Savoy last evening.

F. H. Anderson, the Pacific Paper man of Portland is staying at the Foley today.

J. B. Levi handing a Chicago line of goods was staying at the Foley last evening.

Doctor L. G. Holland, a prominent physician of Wallowa, stopped at the Foley last evening.

E. L. Eden and son were here from Salt Lake last evening, staying at the Foley.

Mrs. R. B. Niles and Mrs. Dolph Hackett, both of Elgin, stayed at the Savoy last evening.

Earl Baird and wife were here from Elgin last evening and stopped at the Savoy.

W. L. Powell, a resident of North Yakima, transacted business here last night and was registered at the Foley.

O. E. Bayder and J. W. Cummins were some of the Elgin people in town last evening, and stayed at the Savoy hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Stayley of Kansas are here to spend the summer with their daughter, Mrs. J. B. Wade, 1311 N. avenue.

V. Bean, old time football center rush for the La Grande high school was down from North Powder last night and returned this morning.

P. S. Mitchell and P. S. Mitchell, Jr., of Portland are here today with a line of shoes and are headquartered at the Foley.

Mrs. Mary Smith and daughter Miss Evelyn of Red Wing, Minn., have gone on to Portland to complete a tour of the northwest after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Green and with Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Robson, both former Red Wing families.

Mrs. M. Noble who has been spending the past two months with her daughter, Mrs. Happersett, returned to Portland on No. 5 today. Florence Happersett accompanies her to spend her vacation with relatives in Portland.

Meacham Seeks Improvement.
Improved train service for Meacham is the object of a visit to Pendleton today by C. W. Nibley, the sawmill man, and Bert Smith, prominent Meachamites, who are seeking to enlist the aid of the Pendleton Commercial club in their endeavor to bring better accommodations for passengers to their home town, says the Pendleton Live Wire.

At present, Meacham is handicapped by the lack of a local train which will give them suitable transportation home from Pendleton, Portland and other points west. They will ask the O.-W. R. & N. to permit train No. 18 to stop at that point, or at least to carry passengers to Meacham.

The influence of the Pendleton club will probably be thrown in their direction.

Witness to White Slavery.
(Baker Democrat.)

Sheriff Ed. Rand is at Salt Lake City this week, as a witness in the white slave case that is being tried before the federal court of that city.

Two of the principals in the case, Irene Chandler and Flora Hall, were arrested in the restricted district in this city some months ago, the matter of their arrest being given considerable publicity at the time owing to the nature of the charge against the man in the case, who was arrested some time later in Walla Walla.

They were held here a long time before being taken to Salt Lake. The Salt Lake case is but one of many similar that the government is running down, in an effort to stop the white slave traffic in the northwest.

Arcade Theatre.
Today is the last day of the program now running there and to those who have not seen the Edison picture "Aida," tonight is their last chance. This is one of Edison's masterpieces and is truly a splendid picture. The song this change, "My Southern Rose" sung by Miss Stephenson and Mr. Roberts, accompanist on the xylophone, is also very good.

Notes from the Labor World.

The waitresses' union of San Francisco voted to impose a fine on any member who in the future does not display her badge of membership on duty.

The Ohio Federation of Labor has begun a state wide movement to get the initiative referendum and recall at the Ohio constitutional convention next January.

John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America, has gone to Kansas City to take up some differences among miners in regard to the settlement of the "powder dispute" between miners and operators. In addition to the numerous laws in France looking to the amelioration of the conditions of the working classes, new legislation has been proposed to regulate the employment of minors under eighteen years of age and of women in selling merchandise from the stands and tables on sidewalks outside of bazaars and large stores.
