BEAR MEAT FOR WORKMEN.
 Bear Falls Into Trouble in Wallowa County Sheep Shearing Camp.

There was bear meat for dinner at the Litch shearing plant last Thursday night. And thereby hangs a tale, relates the Wallowa Sun.

Br'er Bear was discovered among Earl Coffman's sheep at five o'clock Thursday morning. Mr. Coffman's herder chasing it out of the corral by setting the dog onto it. John Reed and Harry Richards on horseback started after Mr. Bruh and cornered him about four miles away on East Crow creek. Richards had the luck to kill it.

The bear was about two years old, nice and fat, weighing 200 pounds. So everybody enjoyed bear steak and bear roast at Litch's that night, served in Chef John Bursleson's best style.

Rusk Goes to La Grande.
 J. P. Rusk was in town Saturday, and confirmed the report that he will leave Joseph in a few days. He will remove to La Grande where he will enter into the practice of law. A. W. Schaupp and B. L. Sanford compose the firm that will occupy his old office in Joseph.—Enterprise News Record.

Right to the Point.
 Frank Finnegan, a Chicago newspaper man, was once sent to interview Charles T. Yerkes. In the outer offices of the traction juggler he was presented with a card like this:
 Mr. .... wishes to see
 Mr. ....
 About .....

Mr. Finnegan filled it out, and it was taken to the private office, where the rich man read:
 "Mr. Finnegan wishes to see Mr. Yerkes about two minutes."
 He got his interview too.—Chicago Post.

The Only Road.
 Some young divinity students were trying to drag Bishop Wilberforce into a discussion as to which was the best road to heaven.
 "Well," said the bishop, "there is only one road to heaven that I know of, and that is to turn to the right and go straight on."

One of the Regulars.
 "He's a pessimist."
 "Worries over his bad luck, eh?"
 "Oh, even optimists do that. This fellow's a regular pessimist. He worries over other people's bad luck."—Toledo Blade

Money Invested in a Home Brings You Real Rewards

that cannot be measured alone in dollars and cents. There's satisfaction in knowing you have a home when possibly all other investments fail—it gives you a feeling of security and demands the recognition of your fellow townsmen, because by building you show your faith in the future of the community. And every community is known by its deeds. You can help and at the same time help yourself. A home investment is always the most meritorious, and loss is less likely because you are dealing in values you understand and with people you know. We have supplied the lumber for the homes of many of your friends who are now on the road to success, and want to talk with you whenever you're ready.
