Citation.
 In the county court, for the county of Union, State of Oregon.
 In the matter of the estate of Henry D. Coger, deceased.
 To Mary C. Coger, Prentice W. Coger and Richard Coger and to all unknown parties interested in said estate, GREETING:
 IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, you are hereby cited and required to appear in the county court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Union, at the court room thereof, at La Grande, in the county of Union, on Wednesday, the 5th day of July, 1911, at 10 o'clock, in the forenoon of that day, then and there to show cause if any there be, why the real estate of said estate, viz: Lots 9, 10 and 11 in block 6 of Grandy's addition to the city of La Grande, Oregon, should not be sold to pay claims against said estate and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, the Hon. J. C. Henry, judge of the county court of the state of Oregon, court for (Seal) the county of Union, with the seal of said affixed this 3rd day of June, 1911.
 Attest: ED. WRIGHT, Clerk.

TENTED CITY IS GROWING

RESERVATIONS FOR CAMPING GROUNDS BEING MADE.

Man in Charge on Grounds Will Assist in Making Choices.

With Chautauqua week approaching, farmers and La Grande people in numbers are looking about for camping facilities which will allow them to camp at the camping grounds adjoining the chautauqua grounds. There are two men at the park continually who will make reservations for these campers and as the demand is brisk, people anticipating spending the ten days at the tented city should see to it at once. By going to the grounds and making selections reservations can be made at this time and the best sites are rapidly being grabbed up.
 Contracts have been closed for the construction of the auditorium, and other buildings needed for the administration of a successful chautauqua. Everything is progressing with smoothness and precision and everything will be in place at the appointed time.

What He Would Pay to Hear.
 "Clemens," said a friend to Mark Twain some years ago, "wouldn't you like to go and hear Ingersoll on Moses this evening?"
 "No," replied the humorist; "I wouldn't give 10 cents to hear Ingersoll on Moses, but I would give $10 to hear Moses on Ingersoll."

A Triumph of Ratiocination.
 Damocles saw the sword suspended by the hair.
 "Since it can't cut the hair, I judge your wife has been sharpening her pencil," he remarked to the king.—New York Sun.

The Poet's Spur.
 "This is a great poem. You must have been thinking of something inspiring when you wrote it."
 "I was. I was thinking of the installment man."—Pittsburg Post.

A Common Occurance TIME

At the Last Minute...As Usual

(Phone)—"Hello! Hello! Is this the City Grocery? We are going to have a wedding and banquet at our house, and wish you would send up some celery for our chicken salad right away."

Grocer—"Very sorry, Madam, but celery is now out of the market or what we have is so poor that I am ashamed to send it."

(Phone)—"Oh, dear, I must have some celery, as I would not serve a chicken salad made without it. You must get it for me somewhere at any price."

Grocer—"We have Dunkley's Kalamazoo Celery for making salads that you will find superior to fresh celery, if the directions on the can label are followed, and I will send you up one-half dozen cans of that."

(Phone)—"Oh, I am so glad you have it, as it saves my banquet from being a failure. You had better send up one-half dozen cans, so I can have some in the house. I thank you very much."

"Oh, wait a minute, you may also send me one-half dozen cans of Dunkley's Kalamazoo Canned Celery for cooking. I am tired of serving corn, tomatoes on peas as side dishes, and will serve creamed celery and celery on toast as they are delicious and we all like them. Please hurry them right up."
