Our Sleep.
As a race we sleep too little. An infant's life is nearly all sleep. Gradually as the child grows older the hours of sleep are shortened to half the day or about eight hours. Youth until the age of twenty is reached requires fully ten hours' sleep. Although nature demands fewer hours' sleep in summer than in winter, it has been proved that eight hours of sleep are required for the average adult in good health. By this, explains the Pittsburg Dispatch, is meant not simply eight hours in bed, but that amount of good, sound, restful sleep night after night. Our power to work is intimately related to our ability to sleep, and there is no more reliable indication of sound health than the capacity to sleep naturally, and the more active and energetic the waking life the deeper the sleep.

Feminine Ideals.
I look for the day when women will cease to be imitative, copying men, but will become completely, perfectly and proudly women.—A Woman's Letter in London Times

UNIQUE CONTEST PROMISED

DOG AND A DUCK WILL STRUGGLE FOR HONORS.

Oriental Bird Will Be Pitted Against Canine, Maybe.

Considerable excitement and speculation has been caused during the last few days in the city and adjacent towns of the Grande Ronde valley by the report that Grant Lincoln and Bert Hughes of the State saloon have arranged for a unique contest on the 4th of July between a Philippine duck and an English bull terrier. Hughes asserts that the "duck" was brought from the Philippines by Captain Harrison of the 16th cavalry and stands, when upright, 39 inches high. Captain Harrison has the duck in training and will back his entry to defy and beat any dog of 56 pounds weight to draw the duck outside of a 12-foot ring.

The duck is fed on raw meat, and from all accounts of those who have seen the bird he is certainly ferocious. He has been trained to use his bill or beak, or, as Hughes calls it, his "mouth" with deadly effect upon all dogs he has hitherto been matched against. The Fourth of July committee have not yet been approached on the matter of a public contest but as soon as Captain Harrison arrives in town with the bird, negotiations will be entered upon with a view to hold the contest during our week of festivities.

A Kicking Deferred.
Aunt Clara to her young nephew, who has just brought a pucker into the parlor where she is sitting—Good gracious, Tommy! What are you doing with that bucket? Take it down to the kitchen at once, Tommy—I want you to kick it, Aunt Clara, 'cause I heard papa saying when you kick the bucket we'd get at the very least $25,000.
