Bank Examiners to Meet.
Spokane, Wash., July 1.—Special—National bank examiners of the tenth district, taking in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana, will meet in Spokane on July 5th. Frank H. Luce, chairman of the district, will preside. The program follows:
Introductory remarks by Chairman Luce; remarks, J. L. Mohundro; "How Co-Operation Between Clearing House and National or State Bank Examiners May Be Made Mutually Beneficial," C. S. Loveland; remarks, Will Wright; "Grain Warehouse Receipts as Collateral," F. E. Barbour; remarks, C. E. Kumpe; "How Near Is an Examiner Expected to Approach an Audit in an Official Examination?" Martin McLean; remarks, V. W. Platt; paper, William C. Pierce; "Common Law Knowledge as an Essential Part of the Equipment of the Examiner," A. V. Hayden; "Habitually Granted Overdrafts and Their Treatment," Harry Yeager; "Benefit to Be Derived Through the Co-Operation of the State and National Bank Examiners and the Methods of Co-Operation," Frank H. Luce.
Besides National Examiners Luce, Loveland, McLean and Yeager, the following superintendents and examiners of state banks are expected to attend the meeting: J. L. Mohundro, state examiner of Washington; Will Wright, state bank examiner of Oregon; V. W. Platt, bank commissioner of Idaho; C. E. Kumpe, state examiner of Montana, F. E. Barbour, deputy state examiner, Spokane; A. V. Hayden, deputy state examiner, Tacoma, and William C. Pierce, assistant bank commissioner, Boise, Idaho.

The meeting is one of the 11 in session throughout the United States about the same time, when the bank examiners will discuss financial questions. It will also be the first time in the history of the office of the comptroller of the currency that the state and clearing house examiners have been invited to meet with the national examiners.
The annual meetings are part of a plan conceived by Comptroller of the Currency Murray shortly after he took office. He divided the several states into 11 districts for closer co-operation between the several bank examiners. One of the examiners of each district was made chairman. The reports from each district will be sent to the comptroller.

than either brick or concrete.
Mrs. F. S. Bramwell, of La Grande, was in the city Monday.
Frank Bidwell has been about on the sick list since Monday night, as a result of strenuous work at the fire.
J. J. Turner and daughter of Big Creek, were in the city Saturday, extending their trip to La Grande.
Where will you spend the Fourth? That is the question that must be decided soon. The Union band and ball team will go to La Grande, and many of our citizens will do likewise. La Grande offers the only celebration in this part of the state, and those who wish to see it done up in proper shape will not miss it by going to La Grande. The chautauqua, the regular Fourth of July program and many interesting events are on the list for the entertainment of the public. Better go.

New Army Rules Effective.
Washington, July 1.—The army department re-organization, which has been a subject of much discussion since the plans were first announced by the war department some months ago, came into effect today. The re-organization is in the interest of simplified administration. The war department believes it will expedite the transaction of business connected with the army and effect a saving of about $100,000 a year in army administration.
The leading feature of the new plan is the establishment of three main divisions. These are the eastern division, with headquarters at Governor's Island, the central division, with headquarters at Chicago, and the western division, with headquarters at San Francisco. At these places the principal work is to be concentrated. The divisional officers will give attention to the purely military business, leaving the department commanders to deal with administrative detail. The object is to develop officers capable of handling great army units.
The army headquarters at Denver is the only one abolished under the new order. Considerable changes, however, are made in the boundaries of the other departments. The department of the east is extended to take in Ohio and Kentucky, which hitherto have formed part of the department of the lakes. Louisiana is transferred from the department of the Gulf to the department of Texas. North and South Dakota, formerly included in the departments of Dakota and Missouri, are transferred from that department to the Lakes department. New Mexico, Arizona and Utah are detached from the department of Colorado and form part of the department of California. Montana and Wyoming go from the department of Dakota to the department of Columbia, which is to have its headquarters at Vancouver Barracks, Wash.

Minneapolis Celebration Next Week.
Minneapolis, Minn., July 1.—Business in Minneapolis will be practically at a standstill the coming week while the citizens give themselves over to a celebration of the growth and prosperity of the city. The affair has promise of being one of the most notable of its kind ever held in this country. Many visitors are already putting in an appearance and it is expected that when the celebration gets fully under way at the beginning of the week the crowd will be the largest ever entertained in Minneapolis.
There are to be separate events for each of the seven days, beginning tomorrow with band concerts and a military review. Pageants and spectacles reflecting the manufacturing and commercial progress of this section of the country will be a leading feature of the week. Of an educational nature will be the great outdoor pageants and parades symbolizing the history of the northwest, beginning with the discovery of the upper Mississippi, the Indian warfare that followed with its settlement, the events of early statehood, the sending of the first troops to the front in the civil war, the coming of the railroads, the development of commerce, the harvesting of the crops and the remarkable era of general prosperity.
The decorative features are especially attractive and elaborate, street after street in the down town section being literally a sea of flags and bunting and at night ablaze with hundreds of thousand of multi-colored lights.

Pittsfield 150 Years Old.
Pittsfield, Mass., July 1.—The city of Pittsfield will celebrate the 150th anniversary of its incorporation as a town by a gala week beginning tomorrow, on much the general plan for an old home week, but with more elaborateness. Former Secretary of the Navy Long, President Garfield of Williams college and other men of note will take part.

COUNTY NEWS ITEMS.

(From Union Scout.)
W. J. Hunter lost a valuable horse this week. The animal ate too much grain which was accidentally left in a place where the horse could get to it. The Union band boys are practicing nightly in preparation for the Fourth at La Grande.
Miss Hazel Kaster is visiting friends in La Grande this week.
(From Union Republican.)
Liveryman Gassett is right on the spot again, doing business in the stables at the rear of the Pratt warehouse. This arrangement is but temporary, as Mr. Gassett has not yet decided whether he will rebuild or not.
Contractors are this week figuring with Mr. Gassett on the erection of a stone building on the site of the one just burned. The building to have fireproof roof. The plan is to keep the horses in sheds at the rear, and feed from the barn. It is stated that a stone building can be erected cheaper
