Mildred and Myrtle Hoyt entertained about 25 of their little friends on Monday afternoon. The event was the eighth birthday anniversary of the twins and they received many handsome little gifts. Among those invited were Merle George, Maxine Jolly, Velma Jasper, Alladene Scroggins, Wilma Wade, Leona Coolidge, Mary Fitzgerald, Bonna Nibly, Bessie and Florence Sherbet, Thelma Oesterling, Donna Smith, Nedra Hunt, Hazel Stageborg, Aften Oliver, Edell Martin, Bertha Berger, Louise O'Connell, Leona Walderine, Ruth Biggers, Helen Earls, Marjorie Logan, Minerva Robbins, Emogene Stout, Mildred and Myrtle Hoyt. After refreshments Mr. C. W. Nibly took the youngsters out for an auto ride. They all had a fine time and hope to be present to help the Hoyt girls celebrate their ninth birthday.

Miss Nell Young entertained about 15 friends last Wednesday evening with luncheon and boating. Young canoes were turned over to the guests and the exilerating pastime of boating on the waters at the park was enjoyed immensely by the guests. The guests were: Misses Nell Mahaffey, Helen McHugh, Ruby Huff, Naomi Williamson, Dora Wolfe, Jennie Gavin, Rachel Turner and Miss Nell Young. Messrs Doland, Brady, Mc-Cabe, Donohue, Knight and Williamson. Music and readings helped make the event enjoyable.

The Minstrels.

The Harrison Bros.' Minstrel show which made Hazelton Wednesday eve ning, has the distinction of being the only one to exhibit here for some time without a lot of fault-finding critics picking its attractions to pieces afterward. A negro minstrel show is in a class by itself; and a good one never fails to please an audience where laughter and amusement are sought.

The negro has an ear for music; it is natural wth him; and he has his way of rendering it. It is not classical, but it is better-it is pleasing.

The Dixie Minstrels on Wednesday night gave a good entertainment-one well worth the price, and the audience got its satisfaction of negro mel-La Grande, Tuesday, July 4th.
