chased Elgin for ten innings yesterday in a sensational 2 to 1 game but couldn't get over the necessary run and Elgin stays one game behind the pennant chasers, La Grande, with the effect that as the last five games approach the contest and excitement between the two leading teams has become even greater than before the Elgin victory here. Ashenfelter was called upon to twirl five innings for Elgin because Mitchell was hurt in warm up and was unable to pitch again until the fifth. tone stayed the game out for Baker. It was a heart-breaking game of big league stle throughout.

BIG REVENGE ON UNIONITES

TAKES MILLING CONTEST FROM UNION EASILY

Team is Strengthened Up and Aggre- gation is Well Balanced.

La Grande invoked sweet revenge on the Union lot yesterday for the stinging defeat of five weeks before by winning a round-and-round-we-go contest to the tune of 11 to 3. La Grande has strengthened materially and the machinery was all together too well meshed for any chance of an effective alip. In one inning McInnis went wild and a timely hit scored three runners but only in that one inning was Union effective enough to make much impression. The home guard played tight ball up to the fourth inning and then went to pieces because Andy Mulvehill was taken out of the game and changes had to be made to meet the conditions. Soon afterwards Davis was knocked unconscious in collision, and Sheets was taken out of the game with a bad hysteria of a fannette in the grand stand, added color of gore and tragedy to the game otherwise quite peace-able.

Four mound artists worked during the game. McInnis was rested after the fifth inning and gets credit for a victory for La Grande was then ahead. Aubin the right fielder and pitcher finished the game in elegant fashion allowing no more runs. The accidental knock down and drag outs in the Union ranks made Reiben take the slab and let Smith, who worked the first five innings, take third. Reiben was being held out for the Tuesday game here but the accident gave La Grande a chance to study the Mitchell prodegy out before that crucial game. He has lots of smoke and variety galore too.

Notes of the Game.

Owens the little fellow who plays infield, outfield or backstop, wore the mask for La Grande. His peg to bases was sensationally correct always.

Elwell, big Caldwell captain when Walter Johnson blossomed into big brush, was on the initial sack with lots of funny talk, smiles and all good work. He and Owens both hit well. Elwell getting two sacrifice hits aside from regular bingles. The first sack is well cared for.

La Grande's left was covered by Walters, O. A. C. collegian, who is more finished than when he played with Cove two years ago.

Childers, McDonald, Bradley and Proe were well tuned yesterday and nothing got by them.

Aubin and Conley took turns in right garden. Conley is an active fielder as well as catcher.

Davis the Union slugger, maintained his batting average with a brace of clean hits yesterday. He is a bad one with the willow.

La Grande got three hits in one canto and then didn't score—figure out Fans agree that La Grande has a fielding pulled off by Union.

team at the present time which for not been equalled in La Grande for years, since the first Eastern Oregon league at any rate. Fans can expect some clever ball tomorrow.

HEART TROUBLE CLAIMS WADE

Ben F. Wade, only a few weeks ago a resident of La Grande, before he moved to Portland with his family, dropped dead of heart failure this morning at the metropolis. Funeral arrangements set Wednesday at burial day. Miss Leon Wade, one of the two daughters, who with a widow and one son survive, arrived in La Grande a few days since to visit friends. Mr. Wade was a resident of La Grande for many years and his many friends here will be grieved at the sudden demise.

The Motorist at Home.

"You have a fine lot of children. Binks," said Hawkins as after a spin through the country they returned to the house for dinner. "How many are there?"

"Seven," said Binks proudly.

"I've often wondered," said Hawkins, "whether you people with so many children have any favorites among them."

"Oh, no," returned Binks hesitatingly—"that is to say, not consciously, but of course we are more interested in a 1911 model than in the earlier ones."—Harper's Weekly.

Sufficient Unto the Day.
