MAGUIRE HAS STRONG VOICE

IRISH HUMORIST AND EXPLORER COMING TOMORROW.

People in La Grande Now Praise the Irishman to the Echo.

Gabriel Maguire, Irish humorist, conqueror of the Congo and missionary to Africa, the man with a voice like a megaphone who doesn't know how to whisper, is coming to La Grande tomorrow to appear on the chautauqua program tomorrow night. Mr. Maguire is praised to the echo by the members of the Apollo Concert company, now in the city and they affirm La Grande will be captivated by the big-voiced fellow who has explored Africa like Stanley.

From the bogs of Old Ireland to the heart of "Darkest Africa" is a far cry. In his famous lecture, "With an Irishman Through the Jungles of Africa," Dr. Maguire tells you all about it, the circumstances that led up to it, how he got there, what happened before he was able to get away, and what came of the experience.

Dr. Maguire bears the distinction of being the first white man to go up the Congo after Stanley came down. Filled by reading of the stirring accounts of that intrepid explorer's adventures, Dr. Maguire went to Africa as a missionary. During the six years that he labored in the heart of Africa he learned the language of the tribesmen, winning them at last to christianity. A severe illness brought him back to this country and his appearance at the Christian Missionary Alliance, in Carnegie hall, New York City, was welcomed by an audience of more than 6,000 people. His address upon that occasion was one of the greatest oratorical triumphs of this generation.

In his lecture work Dr. Maguire carries with him a large collection of savage gods, snakeskins, idols and other implements of savage manufacture, among them being a necklace once worn by a witch doctor, each bead of which represents a human heart sacrificed to appease the wrath of evil spirits. Musical instruments, arrows of the pygmies, horns, gongs, spears, war clubs and savage dresses are shown and described and many personal experiences are related of the difficulty in securing such a collection.

Dr. Maguire is pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian church of Cleveland, Ohio. His lecture, "With an Irishman Through the Jungles of Africa" was delivered more than one hundred times last season. Be sure to come out and hear him, brogue and all. The doctor has kissed the Barney stone and you will not be allowed to forget the fact.

POLITICIANS SEEKING WEST

PACIFIC NORTHWEST STAMPING ING GROUNDS THIS FALL.

Many Men of Prominence to Make the Rounds Through This Section.

Spokane, Wash., July 5.—If the voters of the Pacific slope country are not thoroughly familiar with all the political and other issues of the coming presidential contest, following the harvesting of the crops this season, it will not be the fault of the spell-binders. The number of prominent men planning the trip next fall might lead some to think the way to the white house is through the northwestern and Pacific states. President Taft is due some time in September, and may pass a day or more in Spokane, others coming earlier or later are: Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio, Champ Clark, speaker of the house of representatives; United States Senator Gore of Oklahoma, United States Senator Williams of Mississippi, Congressman William Sulzer of New York, United States Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, United States Senator Clapp of Minnesota, United States Senator Bourne of Oregon, United States Senator Poindexter of Washington and several others from middle western, eastern and southern states.
