LA GRANDE IS VICTOR TWICE

AUBIN ENJOYS SWEET REVENGE ON OLD PLAYMATES.

Union Loses Afternoon Game With McInnis on Mound for Home Team

Mysterious Mitchell's interview in the Oregonian of recent date has removed the halo of mystery surrounding that individual, and proved to be his jinks yesterday when La Grande landed on the erstwhile New York Giant, San Francisco club twirler and University of Chicago mound artist with such telling force that a decided victory was accorded La Grande and sweet revenge scored for one Bill Aubin, newly wed, and one time Elgin twirler, discarded to make room for Mr. Walker. It was a game that sparkled with spots of brilliant baseball and in the eighth inning was made remarkable because La Grande sluggers leaned against five benders from the ex-mysterious one's arm.

The crowd was large, but not quite up to the more than 900 paid admissions of the afternoon, when a record attendance was on hand.

Aubin was given good support and his offerings were of such a character that they mastered Elgin which was minus Hooper and another man and Bob Smith of Union and Reiben of Union filled their places, both doing pretty fine work. Hooper is ill.

Because of the intense rivalry, of a good natured sort always, the game was exceeding interesting for the crowd contained between 250 and 300 Elgin fans. Lack of space only crowds out mention of meritorious plays on both sides of the game. Kooser alone umpired, Mr. Tuttle failing to come. Elgin complained somewhat at his decrees but they were as fair to one side as the other, and the five hits in the eighth inning were not the result of bad decisions.

Afternoon Game Good.

There were more streaks of good ball during the game with Union in the afternoon than characterized the morning contest. The La Grande players were strong behind "Heck" McInnis, who was on the mound and there was little trouble in winning, though had Union commenced with the support that they gave the clever young collegian, Reiben, later in the game, the story would have been different. Union scored three in a bunch when two errors resultant of bad bounds, let men on that were scored by a long home run by Clark.

The afternoon lineup for La Grande differed from the morning game only in that McInnis was on the mound. Owens caught both contests and added laurels and won a home by his good pegging and home run, a neat affair. Conley played with Union as Mulvihill is still crippled. Coffee of Baker played short for La Grande.

SUMMARY.

First on balls: off McInnis 1, off Reiben 2; two base hits: Sheets, Conley, Coffee and Elwell. Home run: Clark; struck out: by McInnis 8, by Reiben 7.

Sale of Winans Stable.

London, July 5.—Lovers and breeders of fine horses are displaying a lively interest in the dispersal sale of the Walter Winans stable which is announced to take place tomorrow at Tattersalls. Mr. Winans, who is an American by birth but a resident of England for many years, has been one of the foremost breeders and exhibitors of show horses on this side of the Atlantic since the early '80s. His horses won many ribbons at the recent international show at Olympia and at the several similar shows in previous years. Despite his success as an exhibitor, however, it is understood to be his intention to abandon the show ring and devote his entire attention in future to his racing stable

SPOKANE JUDGE UNCOVERS INCIDENT OF THAT SORT.

Divorce Proceedings to Light Peculiar Happening.

Spokane, Wash., July 5.—When Judge Henry L. Kennan, presiding judge in the Spokane county superior court, granted a decree of divorce to Daniel Hedican of Spokane, from Lillian M. Hedican, living in central Massachusetts, there was disclosed material for a modern version of "Enoch Arden." They were married in 1897 and lived here until 1901, when Hedican went to Alaska to build a railroad for M. J. Honey, passing the following eight years in construction camps. Meanwhile, his wife returned to her mother's home in Massachusetts, where, after seven years, the courts declared Hedican "legally dead," and Mrs. Hedican married a second husband. Application then was made by Mrs. Hedican in the county court here to be appointed administratrix of Hedican's estate. The railroad builders did not appear in court, but his counsel offered proof that Hedican was alive. Mrs. Hedican's journey followed the announcement that Hedican's property had been sold for taxes, and she came to contest the action to quiet the titles. Afterward she refused to live with him.

Ethel Barrymore is to appear next season in A. L. Mason's London success, "The Witness for the Defense," to be produced by Charles Frohman. It is reported that Anna Held will make another American tour under the direction of F. Ziegfeld, Jr., in a piece by the authors of "The Pink Lady."

Flora Zabelle, in private life Mrs. Jane Cowl has received an offer to play a leading role in a new play by Raymond Hitchcock, has gone to Constantinople with her sister, it is announced, to claim a villa on the Bosphorus left them by their grandfather, in Paris.

Money Invested in a Home Brings You Real Rewards that cannot be measured alone in dollars and cents. There's satisfaction in knowing you have a home when possibly all other investments fail—it gives you a feeling of security and demands the recognition of your fellow townsmen, because by building you show your faith in the future of the community. And every community is known by its deeds. You can help and at the same time help yourself. A home investment is always the most meritorious, and loss is less likely because you are dealing in values you understand and with people you know. We have supplied the lumber for the homes of many of your friends who are now on the road to success, and want to talk with you whenever you're ready.
