APOLLO PEOPLE WELL LIKED.

Program From Many Varieties of Instruments Pleases Large Crowd.

Several hundred people last night heard the Apollo concert in a series of bell ringing, saxophone, cornet, piano, trombone and what not numbers. Immensely entertaining, the troupe leaves La Grande with highest commendation, and the chautauqua people have set a precedent for the following numbers to emulate.

The program was a happy blending of medleys, overtures and classics, from instruments of many descriptions. All are clever musicians but Mr. Holmes, a member of the company is especially versatile with the musical pen, for several of the numbers were of his own compositions, among these being two exceptionally clever numbers, and a third, the only light and frivolous number on the program, a reproduction of Hy Henry's minstrel band.
