RESORT GIVEN ATTENTION

WALLOWA LAKE IS GREATLY IMPROVED THIS YEAR

Barro Hides Through Mountains a Feature Hereafter.

J. B. Egnesperger, president of the Wallowa Lake Amusement company was in La Grande yesterday afternoon on his way to Baker where he will talk Joseph features. A great many important improvements have been made at the popular amusement resort in the heart of the mountains of Wallowa county, and Mr. Egnesperger affirms that special stress will be laid on entertaining La Grande people. Some time during the height of the season a special day will be set aside for La Grande people.

Rates to the lake from Walla Walla Huntington and intermediate points have been provided for, on the consideration that the tickets are purchased to Wallowa Lake and not to Joseph.

Many Details Explained.

The general manager of the resort said yesterday: "We have provided some special features this year and we can announce the following prices and details:

"By the week—One tent with one bed, $5.00 per week; one tent with one bed and one cot, $7.00 per week; one tent with two beds, $7.50 per week.

"Meals are furnished at the restaurant and lunch counter at reasonable prices. $5.50 meal tickets can be purchased for $5.00.

"Parties desiring to bring their own camping outfits will be allotted space free.

"Burros and saddle horses for mountain climbing 25c per hour. Special rates by the day.

"Dancing Wednesday and Saturdays and on special occasions if desired.

"Special excursion rates of one and a third fare on the O. W. R. & N. from Walla Walla, Pendleton, La Grande, Baker, Huntington and intermediate points direct to the park. (Be sure to ask for tickets direct to Wallowa Lake park.)

"For further information address the Wallowa Lake Amusement company, Joseph, Oregon."

New Boat Launched.

A new boat to take the place of the one destroyed by fire last year, was launched last Saturday. It has been christened the "Android" and will cross the lake in 19 minutes. It is a fast boat, neat and prim.

NEW LAW ON TAXES.

Delinquent List to Be Published Again This Year.

What might be of interest to the general public is a law which was enacted by the last legislative assembly, providing that, beginning four months after the date when any taxes become delinquent, each sheriff of the state shall give a month's notice by weekly publications in a certain newspaper and by publicly posted notices, of a complete list of the taxes so delinquent, with the names of the respective owners in connection therewith.

According to this law anyone who shall have failed by the latter part of July to settle either the whole or the first half of his tax for the year 1910 (the same, in this case, becoming delinquent on the first Monday of April, this year) may expect to find his name and the description of his property listed in such advertisement which will state the provisions of the law, as follows: That the sheriff will, on and after the 6th of October next sell, upon application, certificates of delinquency covering any of the lands so listed. The first publication will appear about the 4th of August.

Money Invested in a Home Brings You Real Rewards

that cannot be measured alone in dollars and cents. There's satisfaction in knowing you have a home when possibly all other investments fail—it gives you a feeling of security and demands the recognition of your fellow townsmen, because by building you show your faith in the future of the community. And every community is known by its deeds. You can help and at the same time help yourself. A home investment is always the most meritorious, and loss is less likely because you are dealing in values you understand and with people you know. We have supplied the lumber for the homes of many of your friends who are now on the road to success, and want to talk with you whenever you're ready.
