Grand Circuit Opens.
Indianapolis, Ind., July 11.—Quar-tered at the state fair grounds just beyond the city limits are several hundred trotters and pacers who are to furnish the sport that marks the first link of the grand circuit, which opened today and will continue until Saturday. Though it is the first time Indianapolis has been honored with a grand circuit meeting the veteran reinmen and others who are here to take part say that the interest never was keener, even in the palmy days when the inauguration of the season with the blue ribbon meeting at Detroit never failed to attract thousands to the city of hie straits.

The program here is a splendid one, made up of 16 events, four for each day of the meeting. The feature event of the opening day is the 2.20 $2,500 stake trot, which is expected to be one of the best races of the week. Among the entries are some of the most promising looking state trotters that will go down the big line this season, and the majority of which will start in the M. and M. at Detroit three weeks hence.

WILLIAMS' PEOPLE COME WITH FINE RECORD.

Music of the Negro Jubilee Singing Sort, is High Class.

Tonight will be rich in music at the Chautauqua grounds. The Williams Jubilee singers, here since yesterday have become attached to the chautauqua grounds, crowd and surroundings, as do all visitors, and are ready to give the public even better than bargained for this evening. This troupe has traveled over the United States and also over Europe, always scoring big successes everywhere.

When an organization or aggregation returns year after year for engagements, there must be something about them that the people like. That is the case with the Williams' band. Their work is such that return engagements are the rule rather than the exception.

The Williams' Jubilee Singers are presented as the best entertainers of a similar character before the American public. A double quartette, they are prepared to sing anything from ragtime to grand opera selections. They have but recently returned from a European tour during which they appeared in all of the large cities and scored a wonderful series of successes. They appeared by request before many of the crowned heads of Europe, their greatest success having been at the royal opera house in Berlin, where they sang before Emperor William and his court. The music lovers of that critically musical center were loud in praise of their efforts.

The following testimonials from a few sources, that you know will induce you to think about them.

"I am very grateful to you for bringing your company to sing for me. I cannot tell you how much I enjoyed it. When you get to Los Angeles, go aboard my ship, the Connecticut, and tell them you sang for me." Admiral Robley D. Evans. (Fighting Bob.)
