

Society and Clubs

Chautauqua is over, with tonight and if the mercury doesn't continue to sink with such telling effect, card parties and sewing clubs will resume routine meetings, commencing next week. The week just past was but a repetition of the week before, too much chautauqua to permit card parties.

Thursday night the manager and staff of the Isis theatre entertained a few friends "after the show." Among other notable moving picture people, were Mr. Nick Greenaway, the popular drummer of the Arcade theatre, and his wife, who left on No. 5 for Missoula, Montana, where the clever stick handler has secured a position with the Montana Amusement company. A real good time was enjoyed before the train left. Among those present were "Sherry," King, Mamie, and Bob Herkmen and wife, of the Isis staff; and R. Zweifel and Miss Craft, of the Arcade theatre. It was a pleasant break to the monotony of the humdrum of moving picture manager and staffs' tasks.

Several out of town guests in La Grande were motifs at a delightful social afternoon arranged by Mrs. C. H. Finn, at her La Grande home on N avenue. Pink roses in profusion decorated the rooms and the refreshments of a delicious nature served during the afternoon were in harmony with the general color plan. Twelve guests were present and of these many were out of town, including: Mrs. J. M. Berry, Portland; Miss Weal and Miss Lichen, San Francisco, guests of Mrs. William Ash; Mrs. McEwan, guest of Mrs. W. Y. Stoddard, Mrs. William Morrison, Carlton, Ore. The other guests were Mrs. M. K. Hall, Mrs. L. F. Dunn, Mrs. Robert Newlin, Mrs. William Ash, Mrs. William Y. Stoddard, Mrs. Franc Wilhelm, and Mrs. Fred G. Schilke.

The up-river season has appeared with vigor. Tomorrow, for example, there will be several camping parties up the Grande Ronde river and of course the auto fanettes will go a long way to make a social feature out of the trip to the fish hatchery where the Union County Motor club congregates at noon tomorrow.

PRES. SMITH AND PARTY ARRIVE

WILL ATTEND CONFERENCE OF THE L. D. S. PEOPLE

Prominent Churchmen Came in Their Special Car Last Night

La Grande today has several important visitors, in both religious and business circles of the nation. President Joseph Smith, Counsellor Henry Smith, Bishop C. W. Nibley and Dr. Seymour B. Young arrived in the city last night in their special car and are attending conference of the L. D. S. people. They will remain here over tomorrow and have charge of several meetings to be held in the tabernacle.

So far as known there is nothing out of the ordinary in the church work here and in all probability it is only a stated visit of President Smith and his workers to this stake.

Typhoid Seizes Victim in Grip of Death—Popular Young Girl

Mattie E. Graves, aged 11 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Graves, died at 4:30 this morning at the family home, 1411 T avenue, after two weeks illness of typhoid fever. As soon as the illness was discovered, all that medical attention and kind friends and nurses could do seemed of no avail. Mattie was of a very sweet and loving disposition and an obedient child always, forming warm affections with all who knew her. The loss is a terrible affliction to the family and she will be sadly missed by her class mates, teachers and friends.

The funeral will be held Sunday, July 16, at 2:00 p. m.

The deceased was born at Viento, Oregon, November 16, 1901. Her parents have lived in La Grande two years, and Mr. Graves has been employed as car and freight clerk during their residence here.

Like a Man
"Did Hawkins take his punishment like a man?" asked Lollyberry.
"You bet he did," laughed Dubbeligh. "He hollered and yelled and used strong language to beat creation."—Harper's Weekly.

Lucky or Not.
"Eve was really a very lucky woman," remarked Mr. Henpeque. "She didn't have any woman to criticize her clothes."
Mrs. Henpeque's eyes snapped.
"On the other hand," she retorted, "she didn't have any woman around to envy the first gowns a woman ever had."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Life.

J. E. Stevenson D. D. S.

If you are so unfortunate as to have lost one or more teeth, those most important organs, and you would like to have the spaces filled, come and talk to us about bridge work. A little time and a few dollars spent in putting the teeth in the proper condition may save you an untold amount of physical suffering from indigestion and other concomitant ills. Do not expect the balance of the digestive tract to MASTICATE your food, it has enough to do to digest it after you have the food properly prepared for it. When you stop to think of it, a large part of physical
