WALLOWA COUNTY JAIL HAS MANY GIRL OCCUPANTS.

Liquor and Girls Taken From Alleged "Joint" at Enterprise.

Enterprise, Ore., July 18.—(Special)—With two prisoners of the tender sex and a large quantity of liquor, which was confiscated from a joint alleged to have been run by Len Emons, Wallowa county is well supplied with "wine and women," and only awaits the "song" to make a typical example of the Primrose path corraled in the arms of the law. The situation is creating a great deal of mirth locally and the ever present joke is getting old with all the officials.

MISS KREIGER INJURED STILL CONFINED TO BED FROM IN- JURIES.

Accident at Brick Yard Results in Injuries to Miss Kreiger.

Miss Anna Kreiger, daughter of Mrs. George Kreiger, is still confined to her bed at the Kreiger home on Third street as the result of the accident at the Wilson brick yards in which she was injured last Saturday. Miss Kreiger was in close proximity to a large machine which broke without the least forewarning and Miss Kreiger was thrown and quite badly injured. She was removed to her home and has since been confined to her bed. She is not seriously hurt, it is believed, and will recover speedily. Her injuries consist principally of bruises inflicted by the fall from the machine when it broke.

The yard was temporarily shut down to repair the damage.

RIOTERS FACE POLICE JUDGE

TURK SAID TO BE ENTICING GIRLS IS JAILED.

Charges of Fighting Placed Against Ringleaders, on Both Sides.

Arrested under the name of John Doe two Greeks were placed on trial this afternoon and another man said to have answered to various names and said to be a Greek-Turk, yet who claimed to be of French-Turkish descent, were fined $15 in police court by Judge Humphreys this morning, all as the aftermath of a "rough house" between a party of Greeks, the Turk and some Americans last night. It appears from a casual inspection of the matter that the Turk was at the bottom of the trouble when, as he was ordered out of the Greek shoe shining parlors on Depot street, he called the Greeks insulting names. That is the Greek version. He was ordered out, say the proprietors of the place, because he had, according to the information, made overtures to a white girl here, and he was not wanted on the premises on that account. The upshot of it was that two Greeks ousted the man bodily and a fight ensued on the street. The Turk who resembles a white man greatly, gained the sympathies of bystanders who thought he was an American and was being pummeled by Greeks. Then came a near riot that required all the police and several bystanders to quell. In the melee the Turk escaped and it was not until the Greeks explained to the near mob that violence against the classic race was ended. In order to get at the real offenders all of the ringleaders were arrested. The Turk escaped but was afterwards arrested and is now serving a jail sentence in lieu of the payment of the fine. Charges of fighting only were preferred against the three. It is said by the Greeks that they know the Turk made obnoxious proposals to at least one white girl in this city and tried to get another white man to plead his cause with the same girl a little later on.

CANDIDATES NUMBER 11

NINE ONLY MADE PUBLIC BY A PORTLAND PAPER.

Said Two Additional Politicians of La Grande Seek New Office.

The Oregonian's lineup of congressional lightning rods, is minus two names, and they are from La Grande, according to well informed politicians in this city. The Oregonian yesterday published a list of probable candidates for the new congressional district which is due to be created by congressional enactment at this session, but which, as yet, has not been done. It is understood there is some opposition to the re-apportionment of the national house but whether this is strong enough to prevent the passage of the measure which is now up to the senate, having been adopted by the house, remains to be seen. The senate votes on this measure August 7th.

Assuming that it will pass there will be a lively scramble for the new office to be created in Eastern Oregon. There are two men in La Grande not mentioned in the appended list of Eastern Oregon congressional timber, who are said to be aligning their political rods right now but for various reasons have not stepped in to the public limelight. However, this will be done at the right time and place. The Oregonian's article, of general interest in Eastern Oregon, says in part:

La Grangers Enter Early.

"But with all this uncertainty, several men prominent politically and professionally in Eastern Oregon, are said to be planning to get into the scrimmage. Not less than nine "possibilities" have been suggested in connection with the republican nomination. They are: Emmett Callahan, a lawyer of Baker; F. S. Ivanhoe, of La Grande, district attorney for the district embracing Union and Wallowa counties; R. R. Butler, of Condon, ex-circuit judge of the district embracing Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler counties; J. P. Rusk, of La Grande, speaker of the house of representatives at the 1911 session; N. J. Sinnott, of The Dalles, state senator from Wasco county; W. H. Brooke, of Ontario; Henry McKinney, of Baker; T. J. Mahoney of Heppner, and Fred W. Wilson, of Athena. Brooke, McKinney and Mahoney were prominent figures in the last session of the Oregon legislature all three being members of the house."

invigorating atmosphere perfumed by the new mown hay and the blooming alfalfa; amid such surroundings was Miss Maude Simpson united in marriage to William Mullenburg. The wedding occurred Sunday evening at 6 o'clock at the summer home of Ford A. Ellis, nine miles north of La Grande. The groom is one of the valley's successful farmers, the bride is a popular young lady of the Grande Ronde. She is at present the postmistress of the island postoffice. Mr. and Mrs. Mullenburg will reside in their home town.

If you are so unfortunate as to have lost one or more teeth, those most important organs, and you would like to have the spaces filled, come and talk to us about bridge work. A little time and a few dollars spent in putting the teeth in the proper condition may save you an untold amount of physical suffering from indigestion and other concomitant ills. Do not expect the balance of the digestive tract to MASTICATE your food, it has enough to do to digest it after you have the food prepared for it. When you stop to think of it, a large part of physical ills is the result of improperly masticated food.

Moral:--Have your teeth put in the proper condition.
