REV. CROCKETT RESIGNED.

Wallowa Pastor to Lose Well Known Christian Pastor Soon.

(Wallowa Sun.)

Rev. W. S. Crockett, for several years pastor of the Christian church here, at Lostine and at Enterprise, handed in his resignation Sunday and the resignation was accepted by the congregation. Rev. Crockett had an urgent call from the three churches to remain another year, but thought that his health would be better and his opportunities greater in another field. He will leave for a new field as soon as his successor can be obtained. The three churches of Wallowa, Enterprise and Evans will probably work together. They are now in correspondence with one of the ablest men of the denomination in the northwest to take the work at the three points.

Rev. Crockett has won an enviable reputation for ability, sincerity and honesty of purpose while in this county and his many admirers will regret his leaving.

This land is suitable for any purpose, and if as conveniently located to any other town as it is to La Grande, could not be bought for double the price asked for it. A payment of $4,000.00 down will handle it; good terms on the balance.
